ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity, to put on record my sincere gratitude and thank all those who have helped me in completing my dissertation work for Ph.D degree.

At the very outset, I am deeply indebted to my Research Guide Dr. Robin D. Tribhuwan, Pune, for his valuable guidance and constant encouragement in completion of this work. He was kind to extend all possible help to me. He has been a limitless source of inspiration to me in my endeavor to explore this area of study. I am extremely grateful to him for all the toil and trouble he has taken for me.

I record my deep sense of gratitude to the entire faculty Members of Nehru Institute of Social Sciences. I am also grateful to the Librarian and all the staff members of the Tilak Maharashtra Vidyapeeth. I have also made extensive use of the libraries of Tribal Research and Training Institute, Pune, Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics, Department of Sociology, Pune University. I thank all the staffs in these libraries for granting me permission to use the library facilities to bring out this study.

I express my deep gratitude to Dr. Anupama Keskar, Head, Department of Sociology, Tilak Maharashtra University, for her invaluable time and help. I am thankful to Prof. Vijay Karekar, Dean, Department of Social Sciences, Dr. Jagan Karade, and Prof. Vishal Jadhav of the Department of Sociology, Tilak Maharashtra Vidyapeeth, Dr. Swati Shirwadkar, Head, Department of Sociology, University of Pune for their inspiration and academic support.

This Ph.D Thesis would not have been completed without the cooperation of the brick-kiln owners and sugarcane factory contractors and more importantly my respondents, the migrant Katkaris and Bhils. The officers and staff of Commissionerate, Sugar, Pune were kind enough to furnish relevant details.
I thank Mr. Pravin Mahajan of Janarth and Shri. Vivek Pandit of Shramjeevi Sanghtana, NGOs for furnishing reports and data on Sakharshalas and Bhonga Shalas. I am indebted to Vijaya Kulkarni, Librarian, TRTI, Pune for her help.

Last but not least, I am thankful to my parents Mr. Arvind Patil and Mrs. Vaishali Patil for their blessings, good wishes and help. My in-laws Mr. Vilas Kharche, Mrs. Asha Kharche and my beloved husband Vinay for their moral support.
