ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Ramesh, Associate Professor of Law, Department of Studies and Research in Law, Manasagangotri, Mysore, for the valuable guidance and co-operation extended to me right from the beginning of this work. He has spent his valuable time in going through the thesis work, giving suggestions and encouraging me in writing the thesis. He has indeed, been a source of strength to me, not only as a guide but also as an ideal human. His suggestions and critical appraisal of the work and articulation of ideas while going through the draft have been of immense value and help in bringing out this research work.

My special thanks are due to Dr. C. Basavaraju, Professor of Law and Registrar, University of Mysore, for his continuous support in this endeavour.

I take this opportunity to thank Dr. M.D. Krishna, Associate Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies and Research in Law, University of Mysore and Dr. Benjamin, Assistant Professor in Law, Department of Studies and Research in Law, Dr. Maruti, Assistant Professor in Law, Department of Studies and Research in Law, University of Mysore, for their support and encouragement given during the course of this work. I also extend my sincere thanks to all the Faculty Members of the Post Graduate Department of Studies and Research in Law, Manasagangorti, Mysore.

I also express my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. K.R. Aithal, Professor of Law, Karnatak University, Dharwad, for his scholarly and academic advice in my research work. My thanks are due to Shri. R.D. Huddar, Registrar (Statistics), High Court of Karnataka, Bangalore for having engaged in scholarly discussion with me while doing this research.

I express my gratitude to Shri. S.L. Bagi for his caring efficiency in typing and making alignment of this work.

I sincerely owe my gratitude to the following institutions for allowing me to make use of their Library facilities. National Law School of India University, Bangalore, Karnataka University’s Sir Siddappa Kambali Law College, Dharwad, Institute for Social and Economic Change, Bangalore, Sri S.S. Basavanal Library, Karnataka University, Dharwad, University of Mysore and S.C. Nandimath Law College, Bagalkot.
I express my sincere gratitude to my colleagues, Smt. Padmalatha and Dr (Smt.) Rekha Chavan, Assistant Professors of Law, Government Law College, Hassan, for their help in reading the proof of the thesis and offering suggestions in the process of my work.

I am greatly indebted to my Mother Smt. Parvatevva and my Sister Smt. Irvava, without whose support I would not have achieved anything of this sort.

I am also indebted to my better half Smt. Saraswati, D/o Shri. Vishnu Kosandar, Senior Civil Judge and CJM Hassan, for her valuable suggestions and support during this work. All my family members including my children Nandita and Aditya stood firmly behind me in my endeavour to complete this work.

Place: Mysore
Date: 24.03.2014

SHRI. MADIVALAPPA MATOLLI