This dissertation would not have been possible without the blessings of my parents and the Almighty who always gave me the strength in this entire journey.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my guide Dr Jamal A Farooquie, Professor, Department of Business Administration of Aligarh Muslim University, who actively guided me at every steps of this study whenever I looked for and encouraged me to accomplish the work. His continuous advice did not only improve my dissertation work but also contributed greatly to my development as a researcher. It has been an enriching experience to work with him during my entire dissertation work.

I am indebted to Dr Rajat K Baisya, Professor, Department of Management Studies, I.I.T., Delhi, an educator with vast industrial experience, for bringing qualitative inputs to the study and for guiding the thesis works. It was a privilege to be benefited from his invaluable insights and knowledge from the very beginning including preparing the synopsis of this dissertation.

I would like to express my gratitude to Dr Javaid Akhtar, Professor, Department of Business Administration, Aligarh Muslim University and the entire dissertation committee who helped me in this process in their own distinct way. I am also thankful to all other professors and officials who were always ready to help me whenever I visited the university.

It is my pleasure to thank all those who made this thesis possible. The discussions I had with my colleagues at Jaipuria Institute of Management, Noida and the invaluable inputs received from senior industry and academic practitioners across industry helped me to add further value to the entire dissertation.

It would have been next to impossible to complete this thesis without all those who came forward to help me at different points of this work. I must thank Niti and Vidiasha to be with me during data collection process from the retailers and suppliers.

Finally, the ones who always stood by my side in the entire journey and helped me to achieve this dream - my husband and best friend Mrinmoy, my wonderful daughter Aneisha and my dear brother Yogesh. Without them, I would not have achieved this meaningful goal of my life. At this moment, I am missing my father who was soul of my encouragement in life and was always there by my side in all ups and downs.

Thank you God for all your love and blessings.
