ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. L. Venugopal Reddy, Professor, Sri. Krishnadevaraya Institute of Management, of Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Ananthapur for his valuable guidance in carrying out my research work and the preparation of final thesis.

Dr. D.P. Sharma, former Dean, Department of Commerce and Management, Sri. Krishnadevaraya University, under whose guidance, I started my research, was instrumental in persuading me to come to Ananthpur and register for my Ph.D. with Sri. Krishnadevaraya University. I am indebted to him for his advice on the subject, particularly at the initial stage.

The university authorities were extremely helpful to me while registering as a Ph.D. Scholar and sorting other procedural matters.

I could not have succeeded in completing the research, but for the whole-hearted support, cooperation and direct involvement of the following management professionals.

* Mr. R. Srinivasan, Managing Director,
Widia (India) Limited, Bangalore.
* Mr. C. B. Ayapa, Managing Director,
  International Instruments (Private) Limited, Bangalore.

* Mr. M. B. Jayaram, Public Relations Manager,
  Karnataka Power Corporation Limited, Bangalore.

* Mr. B. R. Pai, Managing Director,
  Vijay Wires and Filaments, Mysore.

No words will be adequate to thank them for their help.

Dr. S. K. Chakraborty, Professor, Indian Institute of Management, Calcutta, and author of a number of managements books based on Indian ethos, gave me the initial insight into the subject of my research. I am highly obliged to him for sparing his valuable time for my sake.

The executives and other people of the sample units: KPC, Widia, IIL and Vijay Wires and Filaments helped me to complete the research. I am thankful to them.
Finally, I thank all the faculty members and staff of Sri Krishnadevaraya Institute of Management for their favourable and friendly treatment extended to me, whenever I approached them.

I also thank my staff Ms. Usha Venkatesh and Ms. Mary Helen Picker for typing out a number of drafts of the manuscript of my thesis.
