ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Let me begin by expressing my gratitude to God Almighty and Guru who has been the mainstay in the big and small things of the entire study.

I acknowledge with sincere gratitude the inspiring guidance and scholarly advice of Dr. K. V. Indulekha, MSc., Phd., Research Guide in Child Development, Mahatma Gandhi University, a member of Research Board of Advisors, American Biographical Institute, Inc. and at present the Principal of Asan Memorial College of Arts & Science, Chennai, under whose careful supervision this study was undertaken.

My thanks and gratitude is due to Sr. Tessa, the Principal of St. Teresa’s Colleges, Ernakulam for her support during the course of the study.

I record my immense gratitude to Dr. Ramachandran Psychiatrist, G. G. Hospital, Trivandrum for his valuable suggestions in the construction of the tools for the present study. It is a privilege to express my profound gratitude and appreciation to Dr. Raghavan K., M.D Registrar of Department of Pediatrics, Appollo Hospital, Madras, and Dr. John Oanasis Chief Pediatrician, American Mission Hospital Bahrain, who has extended their valuable knowledge and experience.

My thanks to Librarians and library staff of British Council Library, Madras, British Council Library, Trivandrum, Madras University Library, Madras, Karyavattan University Library, Trivandram, St. Teresa’s College Library, Ernakulam, Library of Indian Institute of Technology, Madras and, for providing access to the available literature.
I am filled with gratitude for the goodwill shown by the authorities of all the hospitals from where the data for the research work was collected and also for patience and co-operation of the mothers and the neonates for providing the much wanted information for the data.

I am deeply indebted to my mother Mrs Girija Panicker for her support and unstinted help. Along with them I thank my mother-in-law Mrs Pavana Sadasivan who helped me a lot in my endeavour. I am grateful to Col G. Venu who helped me with some useful linguistic suggestions and Mrs Madhuri Venu for the help rendered during the study.

I utilise the opportunity to place on record my sincere thanks to Mr. Jayan, Jaya Xerox, Chennai for the neat execution of the word processing and documentation of this thesis work.

Lastly, behind every successful woman is her husband, my indebtedness to my husband Mr. Manoj Sadasivan who guided me into the amazing world of internet and helped me overcome my apprehensions about computers also for incessant co-operation and boundless encouragement throughout the research work.

I must admit that it is difficult to express the gratitude, the investigator feels for all other well wishers and friends whose name though not mentioned here, but whose help was always available for prosecuting and improving the study.

Beela .G.K