Acknowledgement

It gives me greatest pleasure to thank all my well wishers who have contributed in various capacities to this research work.

First and foremost, I wish to acknowledge with gratitude the academic and administrative support, I received in the Department of Sociology and Social Work, Aligarh Muslim University in the course of my Ph.D. work. I sincerely thank the Chairman of the department for the untiring support which made it possible for me to conduct my research.

Next, I wish to extend my most sincere and immense gratitude and respect to my supervisor Prof. Noor Mohammad for his unstinted support, encouragement, constructive and invaluable suggestions throughout the course of my work that cannot be expressed in words, plus for his guidance for making himself available whenever I needed his time and for responding quickly to my queries and concerns throughout the duration of this research.

I would also like to express my sincere regards to all my teachers for their constant encouragement. I am specially grateful to Prof. M. Jamal Siddiqui, Dr. Abdul Waheed, Dr. Abdul Mateen, Dr. Tulsiram (JNU), Dr. Ehsanul Haque (JNU) for the moral support and useful suggestions during the course of my work.
I would also like to thank all those officials, shopkeepers, general public, and post masters in post offices, bank managers and doctors in private clinics and hospitals in villages and towns of Aligarh district, who made my field work over there a success.

My special thanks are due to Mr. S.S. Tiwari (District Judge), Dr. Murtaza Ali (ADJ), Mr. Razi Ahmad (ADJ), Mr. S.P.Yadav (CJM), Mr. Ramayan Sharma (Civil Judge, Sr. Div.), who helped me as well as supported me directly or indirectly in so many ways. I am indebted to Mr. Narendra Yadav (District Statistics Officer) for providing data and other relevant information for the field work. I am very thankful to the staff for providing information on market data and other field assistance. I am also very thankful to Madan, Zaheer Ahmad for his computer assistance in possessing the data and map work.

Gram Pradhan, Chakbandi committee members, LMC members, Senior members of the villages, Tehsildars and SDMs, Headmaster and Principals of the schools and colleges, and medical officer need special mention for providing data on land reform, community welfare programmes, education, health and other infrastructure in the villages and towns under study.

My special thanks to Dr. Mohd. Tahir who despite being unwell remained with me and helped me so much to complete this work from the bottom of his heart. I am also very thankful to Ayyubi’s Family who stood by my in weal and woes during the whole duration of this research work.
I also thank the library staff of Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh; Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi; Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi; Department of Panchayatiraj, Lucknow; Land Reform Corporation, Lucknow, Department of Rural Development, Lucknow, for their help and cooperation whenever sought.

I extend my heartfelt appreciation to my friends Dr. Santhosh, Dr. Hema Radhs, Alam, Dr. Viresh (Superintendent of Jail), Ataulla, Arti, Dr. Anis, Mehboob, Masood, Jeetu, Dhananjay, Nusrat, Javed, Sakhawat for the continuous and spontaneous support during my research work.

Let me thank warmly to all those, without whose constant encouragement, the work would not have taken the present shape, my friends Dr. Nadeem Noor, Mr. Yaqoob (Advocate), Irshad Hanif (Advocate, Supreme Court), Saalim, Noorul Haque (PCS), Dr. Rakeshrai, B.K. Jha, Rashid, Vedanshu (IRS), Jaya Kumar (IPS), Arshad and Jamil, need special mention.

I am also thankful to my colleagues Mridula, Kusumlata, Nirupma, Gulam Mustafa, Dr. Dinanath and Vikas who directly and indirectly supported me to complete my work.

My heart is full of gratitude for all members of My Family, My Parents, My Aunty (Aligarh), my father and mother-in-laws, my Brother, & Bhabhi, Sisters and brother-in-laws who not only showed their utmost patience during the long and enduring years of my research but also showered their loving care and best wishes, and provided strong and untiring financial and emotional support as and when I required it. I have just no words to express my thanks to them. I can only submit that I feel proud of being a member of such a family. How can I forget my Brother's lovely kids, Sana, Shad and Faiz for whom I have just no words to explain their mild and naughty activities except the beautiful, sweet and loving feelings? How can I forget my wife Aaysha who within a short span of time not only emotionally supported me but also encouraged me to complete this work and to go upward in the life.

I pay heartiest and special attention, respect and gratitude to my Late grandfather Haji Najibuddin and my grandmother who always remained in my heart and constantly encouraged me to achieve the best in the life.

Last but not the least, my family has given me life, my university has given me knowledge, my Friends and Society provided me the base for research. How can I not be grateful to them all! a revoir.
