ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work could not have materialized in this form had there been no guidance from Professor Abdul Aziz, Department of Geography, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. His encouragement, and insight into the subject were always a constant source of inspiration. I am highly indebted to him.

I also feel highly indebtedness to Professor Shafi, for his useful suggestion. I also thankful to Professor Farooq Siddiqi, Chairman, Department of Geography for his constant support in all respects and the help rendered, wherever the need arose.

I am also thankful to Professor Mehdi Raza and all faculty members for providing me adequate guidance and support from time to time.

I would like to record my sincere thanks to Dr. Fakhruddin, Lecturer of this Department and Dr. Mohammad Firoz Khan, Reader, Jamia Milia Islamia, Delhi for their valuable suggestions.

My research colleagues of the Department of Geography deserve a special mention for providing the moral support in completing this work. The occasional discussions that I used to have with them benefited me a lot. My special thank to fellow researchers Mrs. Shipra Banarjee, Mr. Zurgham Uddin Khairoowala, Mr. Mohammad Tahir, Ms. Rashida Khatoon, Mr. Mahmud Ali Khan, Mr. Shamim and Mr. Sarwar Alam.

I am also grateful to Mr. Siraj Uddin Ahmed, research scholar in Business Administration Department, Mr. Abul Hossain research scholar in Physics Department and other Bangladeshi who help me in research work.

Besides the Aligarh Muslim University, thanks are also due to Professor Moniruzzaman Miah, Vice-Chancellor and Professor Emazuddin, former Pro-Vice-Chancellor, Dhaka University, for encouragement throughout my work.

I am thankful to Professor Nazrul Islam, Director, CUS Associate Professor Dr. (Mrs.) Rosie M. Ahsan, Associate Professor Abdul Baqee, and Associate Professor Dr. Zia-us-Shams Haq, Department of Geography, University of Dhaka, Bangladesh from whom I received many valuable suggestions.

I am specially grateful to Dr. Humayun Kabir Ex-Director, Mrs. Khadiza Khatun, Director, Dr. Ashraf Uddin Ahmed Associate Professor, Mr. P.K. Matiur Rehman Associate Professor, Mr. Khan A. Matin Associate Professor, and Mr. Mohammed Shayieb
Assistant Professor, Institute of Statistical Research and Training, University of Dhaka for their help and encouragement.

I also offer my thanks to Mr. Kazi Shafiuddin Ahmed Secretary and Mr. M. Masudur Rahman, ISRT, Dhaka University for their help in different phases of work.

My special thanks to Dr. Kamal Islam of UNICEF, Dr. Asma Khanum of ICDDR, B, Dr. Ashraful Haq and Dr. Mohammad Musa of CARE for their encouragement throughout my study. Within the Bangladeshi friends, I am most obliged to my friends in Bangladesh, Dr. Kausar Mustafa, Lecturer, Philosophy, Dhaka University, Mr. Kh. Mukaddem Hossain, Lecturer, Sociology, Dhaka University, Mr. Asadur Rahman, UNICEF, Dhaka, Mr. Atiqur Rahman, Lecturer, Social Welfare, Dhaka University for providing help in primary and secondary data collection.

Both India and Bangladesh governments are duly acknowledged for financial support in India which made this study possible.

I am deeply grateful to my departed mother who passed away waiting my return from my studies in India.

I am grateful to my brothers Mr. Sakhwat Hossain and Mr. Hedayet Hossain for their help and encouragement.

I am indebted to Refaya and Lovely, who bore my absence.

I also offer my thanks to Mr. Najmuddin and Mrs. Rana Askari, Librarian, Seminar Library, Geography Department, A.M.U., Aligarh giving optimum facilities.

Finally, I thank Mr. H.S. Sharma for helping me in typing the thesis.

REJUAN HOSSAIN BHUIYAN