ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

No words are adequate to express my deepest gratitude to my Supervisor, Dr. R. Khongsdier, Reader, Department of Anthropology, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong for his help, suggestion, encouragement and constant guidance throughout this work. This work would have remained incomplete without his keen interest.

I am very grateful to the Director, Anthropological Survey of India, Kolkata, for giving permission and providing necessary facilities.

I am also grateful to Prof. H. Lamin, Head of the Department of Anthropology, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong for helping and providing necessary facilities to carryout this research work. I am also expressing my sincere gratitude to my co-supervisor Dr. S. Sengupta, Reader, Department of Anthropology, Dibrugarh University, Dibrugarh, Assam for his help, valuable suggestions and guidance to carryout this work. I would also like to express my gratitude to Prof. T.B. Subbha, Department of Anthropology, for his valuable suggestions. I am also very thankful to Prof. A.K. Ghosh for his inspiration of doing this work.

I am greatly indebted to the Head of Office, Anthropological Survey of India, Shillong for his kind consideration and necessary facilities.

My sincere thanks are due to Shri. Sumit Mukherjee and Miss. P. Baruah for the keen interest shown by them in the thesis and rendering necessary help as and when required.

Finally I must express my deep gratitude to the many Koch people, specially Shri. Gonesh Koch, Shri. Bikash Koch and Shri Manik Koch who offered me hospitality and comfortable shelter during my field investigation. I must be very thankful to all my colleagues, friends and well wishers from within and outside of the Department of Anthropology, North Eastern Hill University and Anthropological Survey of India, Shillong, for their encouragement and interest in the present work.

Last but not least, I am very grateful to all my family members who have render sustained help and moral support.
