ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research work is an attempt at portraying a Glimpse of Trade Union Movement of Assam after Independence. Information of facts given in the work, have been gathered from documents, files, publications available in the various government offices, administrative offices of Industries, Libraries, Trade Union Offices and interviewing the representatives of unions and managements and senior trade union personalities.

This researcher acknowledges the help rendered by officials and employees in finding out relevant documents/records etc. in the offices of Labour Commissioner Office, Assam, Guwahati, The Chief Inspector of Factories, Guwahati, Tea Board of India, Guwahati, Archives Department, Government of Assam, Assembly Library, Dispur, Indian Oil Corporation (Assam Oil Division), Digboi, Pratapgarh and Sakamato Tea gardens etc. The researcher is indebted to the office bearers and employees of the Central Trade Unions namely INTUC, CITU, AITUC, HMS and their affiliate units for giving valuable informations.

In this work a few veteran trade union personalities were consulted and interviewed by this researcher to gather informations from their long experiences in this line. Notable among them are Sarvashree Gaurisankar Bhattacharyya, Rabin Kakati, Bijoy Ch. Bhagawati, Nibaran Borah, Golap Borbora, Indibar Konwar, Amal Ghosh Dastidar, Paban Singh Ghatowar, Jiten Dowara, Late Manabendra Sharma, Achyut
Sharma and many others. The researcher thankfully acknowledges all of them for throwing light on various aspects of the subject.

The researcher is fully indebted to her guide Dr. Phanidhar Gogoi, Reader of Political Science Department, Gauhati University for his active co-operation and able guidance in completing this research work.

The researcher express her gratitude to her father-in-law Sri Dwijesh Chandra Dev Sharma, Ex-M.L.A. of Digboi and her husband Sri Bipul Dev Sharma for all round help in this research work.

Lastly, the researcher thanks Smt. B. Majumder for typing the work neatly and Sri Bhaben Goswami of prinworth for cover printing and binding.

Guwahati

Mamoni Borthakur