TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHAPTER &amp; PAGES</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Preface i - vi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abbreviation vii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chapter -1 Introduction</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Introduction 1.2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Meaning of the term vedānta 3.4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Schools of vedānta 5.6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Advaita Vedānta : Non Dualism 6.7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Śaṅkara and Bradley 8.13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Standard or criterion of reality</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Śaṅkara and Buddhism 13.20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. The Date and time of Śaṅkara 20.22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. The works of Śaṅkara 23.25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. The Necessity of the present study 25.29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>References 30</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Chapter II. The Nature of Appearance

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PAGES</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Introduction 31.32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Historical sketch of Advaita vedānta</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The Śruti- the Ṛgveda 33.37</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The Upaniṣads 37.45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Doctrine of Maya</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Chapter III. Treatment of Appearance in Śaṅkara

1. The Concept of Brahman.

   i. Brahman and Ātman.

   ii. The Nature of Brahman

      a. Śvarupalakṣaṇa of Brahman

         Meaning of Sat, Cit and Ānanda.

      b. Tatasthalakṣaṇa of Brahman.

   iii. The concept of Saguṇa and Nirguṇa Brahman.
iv. The Religious predicament.

2. The Concept of Adhyāsa
   i. Adhyāsa in ordinary experience.
   ii. The meaning of Adhyāsa
   iii. Is the Doctrine of Adhyāsa a case of illusion?

3. The Doctrine of māyā.
   The meaning of māyā
   The two functions of māyā Nature of māyā
   i. Māyā as the Energy of God.
   ii. Māyā as the Finitising principle.
   iii. Māyā - anādi.
   iv. A positive Entity - Bhāvarupa.
   v. Māyā is indescribable
   vi. Māyā is Trigunātmaka.

Avidyā and Māyā

References

Chapter IV. Explanation of Appearance- Anirvacaniyātā

Theories of Error
   i. Asatkhyātivāda
   ii. Ātmakhyātivāda
   iii. Satkhyātivāda
iv. Akhyātivāda 139.....142

v. Anyathākhyātivāda . 142.......144

vi. Anirvacaniyakhyātivāda. 144....149

Meaning of Anirvacaniya,

Mithyā stands for Anirvacaniya.

References 150......151

Chapter V. The status of Appearance

Introduction 150 153

1. The concept of world creation 153 .....159

   Objection against the creation concept of Brahman

ii. Brahman and the world 160

iii. Causation 160 . 163

iv. Parināmavāda and vivartavāda 163 164

v. Can parināma and vivarta be compatible ? 104......167

vi Level of Existence 168.......176

   Pāramārthika sattā, vyavahārika sattā and Prātibhāsika sattā

vii. The concept of Jaganmithyā 177.....181

   The world appearance is mithyā

viii. Refutation of Vījnānavāda 182....189

References 190......194
Chapter VI Removal of Nescience- Avidyānivrūty

Introduction 195

i. The concept of mokṣa 196....205

ii. Nature of Bondage in Advaita Philosophy 205......213

i. Annamayakoṣa.

ii. Prānamayakoṣa.

iii. Manomayakoṣa.

iv. Vijnānamayakoṣa.

v. Ānandamayakoṣa

iii. The way to self-realisation 214 218

iv. Brahman and the individual Soul 218...219

Dehātma Buddhī, Theories of Jivātmā-

(i) Avacchedavāda (ii) Pratibimbavāda.

v. The validity of scripture for self-realisation 223.....226

vi. Jivanamukti and Videhamukti 226.....227

(i) Jivanamukti 226.....233

(ii) Videhamukti 233...236

vii. The Advaitic scheme of discipline 236.....242

The final stage 242.....245

viii Āśrama system and their bearing in the pursuit of Mokṣa 246.....249

References 250......257
Chapter VII - Conclusion

Introduction, summary of the whole work, critical estimate and conclusion.

References

Bibliography

######