I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Prabha Y. Bhogaonkar, my teacher, guide and philosopher.

I am deeply indebted to Shri. Anil Rode (Chief Finance and Accounts Officer) Chief Investigator, Madhughat Prakalpa, Zilla Parishad, Amravati, for offering me an opportunity to work for his project.

I sincerely wish to acknowledge the following –

- Shri. Ramakant Surpatne, a medicinman and middleman without whose help it was impossible to communicate with tribals.

- Shri. Ravindra Wankhade, Principal, Forest Ranger’s college, Chikhaladara; the then Assistant Conservator, Tiger Project, Melghat, for accompanying me on serveral visits and introducing to some knowledgeable tribals.

- Shri. Ajay Pilariset and Shri. Niranjan Vivarekar, Research and Documentation Officers, Tiger Project, Melghat for their constant help during field work; especially in the interior and core area.

- Shri. S. M. Bisandare, a forest guard for his help during field work.

- Dr. J. D. Pohar, Principal, Vasantrao Naik Mahavidyalaya, Dharni, for making his research work regarding Korku folk literature and songs available for the present survey.

- Shri. Raju Kasambe, Hon. Secretary; Wildlife and Environment Conservation Society, Amravati, for taking some good snaps for the present project.

- Dr. V. S. Soitkar, Principal, Govt. Vidarbha Mahavidyalaya, Amravati, for making all the necessary facilities available.

Botanical Survey of India, Pune (Western circle), for providing necessary library and herbarium facilities. I especially thank Dr. P. G. Diwakar and Shri. Shirodkar for their help during my work at BSI, Pune.

- Dr. N. M. Dongarwar, Lecturer, Department of Botany, Shri Shivaji Science College, Nagpur for his valuable tips and suggestions during the work.

- Dr. K. M. Kulkarni, Joint Director, Higher Education, Amravati, for his constant help and encouragement.

- Dr. Mrs. Mangla Kulkarni, Shri. V. M. Pawar and Mrs. Saroj Pawar for encouragement and affection.

- Dr. M. C. Kale and Dr. S. B. Jain and all teachers of Botany Department for their help in field work.

- For financial help I thank - 1) Madhughat Prakalpa, for offering a fellowship for one year during survey period. 2) Govt. of Maharashtra for research fellowship. 3) Dr. D. V. Jahagirdar, Secretary, Vidarbha Shikshan Sanhayak Mandal for a grant of Rs. 5000/-.

- My friends and labmates Santosh Pawar, B. K. Dorkar and Sameera Ahemad for all time help.

- Ravikant S. Jare for computer type - setting and printing.