ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is by far the most significant educational accomplishment of the investigator and it would be impossible without those who encouraged and supported her. The investigator wishes to place on record profound gratitude to all those who have contributed to this endeavour.

Most of all, the investigator wishes to thank her research adviser, Dr. P.J. Jacob, Professor and Director, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for his scholarly guidance and valuable assistance. His commitment, supervision and kindness indeed served as inspiration to the investigator.

The investigator also wishes to express her gratitude to Dr. A. Sudharma, Dean, Faculty of Education, Mahatma Gandhi University, for her constructive comments and sustained interest. A note of gratitude is due to all other faculty members and non-teaching staff of the School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University.

Warm and sincere gratitude is expressed to Mr. Anil Kumar A.T., librarian, School of Pedagogical Sciences for his timely help. Thanks are also due to the librarians of Kerala University – Central Library and Department of Education, Mahatma Gandhi University, SCERT, NCERT and IGNOU for their timely assistance.

The investigator owes deep and heartfelt indebtedness to the heads, teacher educators and student teachers of Primary Teacher Training Institutes, Kottayam district for their co-operation rendered in collecting data for the study. A special word of thanks to the Principal and staff of DIET, Kottayam.

A special note of thanks to Dr. Koshy P. Chacko, Selection Grade Lecturer, Titus II Teachers College, Tiruvalla for his valuable suggestions and comments.

The investigator is highly obliged and grateful to the Principal, Sr. Philomina Thomas and faculty members of Mount Carmel College of Teacher Education for their incessant support and inspiration.

The investigator cherishes the fond memories of her mother Late Mrs. Celine George and acknowledges heartfelt gratitude to her father Mr. P.M. George, husband Mr. Baby Thomas and children Neethu and Nithin for their spiritual and moral support.

Above all, the investigator is thankful to the Almighty God for His divine guidance and support.
