ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I shall be failing in my duties if I do not acknowledge the helps extended by a good number of persons for the successful completion of my research work and if I do not offer my heartiest thanks to them.

Dr. Rajendra Nath Sarma, M.A., Ph.D., D. Litt., Mīmāṃsā-Vyākaraṇa Shāstrī, former Head of the Department of Sanskrit and senior most Professor at present, Department of Sanskrit, Gauhati University, deserves my first thanks for his untiring help, guidance and encouragement for preparing the present work. In fact, words fail to express my deep sense of gratitude which I owe to Professor (Dr.) Rajendra Nath Sarma. His constant constructive suggestions I received always.

I am greatful to Prof. (Dr.) Mrs. Nalini Devi Mishra, M.A., Ph.D., Head of the Department of Sanskrit, Gauhati University and also to all respected faculty members of this department for their valuable advice offered to me.

I heartily acknowledge the help I received from the authorities and staff of K.K. Handiqui Library, Gauhati University and the Library of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Assam, Guwahati.

I put on record the help and co-operation received from my husband Mr. Rhythm Maudgalya during the period of my present study. I am very much indebted to my mother Smti. Renuka Devi, who, always inspired me for doing this research work. I extend my sincere gratefulness to my father-in-law and mother-in-law, Sjt. Pachu Gopal Chakrabarty and Sjta. Snigdha Chakrabarty, respectively for encouraging me time and again to do the present work. I also remember the suffering undertaken by my baby, Ryan, in last three years of his age.

I am also very much thankful to Mr. Kalicharan Das of Geography Department, G.U and his son Mr. Dipankar Das for computerized typing of the present thesis and completing the same on time.
