LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

Following Page

1.1. (A) Administrative Districts, 1991
1.1. (B) Location Of 24 Sample Villages over the Lower and Central North Bank Plain of the Brahmaputra Valley.
2.1. Thirteenth century Political setup.
2.2. Sixteenth century Political setup.
2.3. Seventeenth Century Political setup.
3.1. Physiography and Drainage.
3.2. Soil types.
3.5. Motorable road density, 1987-'86.
4.1. (A) Concentration of Tribal Population, 1901.
4.2. (A) Concentration of Bodo Tribal Population, 1901.
4.7. Distribution of Bodo speaking population in the North Bank Plain of the Brahmaputra Valley, 1971. 135

5.1. (A) Occupational structure of the Bodo Tribal in the 24 sample villages, 1991. 147

5.1. (B) Correlation between percentage of literacy and percentage of workers in secondary and tertiary occupations (in 24 sample villages) 149

5.2 Correlation between number of Bodo farmers with less than 20 bighas of agricultural land and Number of Bodo indebted to businessmen. 161

5.3 Area under various agricultural land-holding sizes of the Bodo farmers in 24 Bodo-majority sample villages, 1991. 162

5.4 Relative concentration of non-indigenous population, 1971. 166

5.5 Location of the majority Bodo habitational belt in relation to the location of urban centres, 1991. 169

5.6 Zonewise distribution of urban centres in the majority Bodo inhabited belt of the Lower and Central North Bank Plain, 1991. 170

5.7 (A) Thana level density of tribal population in the majority Bodo inhabited Lower and Central North Bank Plain of the Brahmaputra Valley, 1971. 174

5.7 (B) Thana level density of urban population in the majority Bodo inhabited Lower and Central North Bank Plain of the Brahmaputra Valley, 1991. 175

5.8 Distribution of rural service centres in the North Bank Plain, 1991. 189

6.1 Areas claimed by the F'TCA as a separate political unit for the plains tribals. 216

7.1 Districtwise levels of socio-economic development, 1991. 227

7.2 Districtwise physiological density, 1991. 235