ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude and debt to my revered teacher Dr. M. M. Das, Professor and Head of the Department of Geography, Gauhati University, under whose able guidance and commendable supervision, this work has been carried out. This work would not probably have been completed without sustained inspiration, critical suggestions, untiring personal involvement and efforts generously spared by him at every stage of this work. I shall remain ever indebted to him for all the help I received from him in course of this study.

I would like to acknowledge the special debt which I owe to the various authors and writers whose works are referred to at appropriate places in the present work, and who provided encouragement to undertake such a research work.

I am grateful to the University Grants Commission for offering me an one year Teacher Fellowship under the Faculty Improvement Programme to complete this work. In this connection, I express my sincere gratitude to Principal C.M. Medhi of Tezpur College, Tezpur, who helped me sufficiently to avail of this chance.

My sincere thanks are also due to all those Government and non-Government officials of the state of Assam as well as the authorities of the concerned tea estates, different Tea Associations and establishments from whom
I shall be failing in my duty if I do not acknowledge the kind help and encouragement extended to me by my revered teachers Prof. H. N. Sarmah, Prof. N. N. Bhattacharyya, Prof. D. C. Goswami, Dr. R. Barman and Dr. K. Bhagabati.

I also express my thankful acknowledgement to Shri D. Subedi, Dr. P. S. Dutta, Dr. A. K. Bora, Shri B. Karmakar and other friends who greatly inspired me to undertake such a study.

My grateful thanks are also due to my colleagues at Tezpur College and teachers of the Department of Geography, Darrang College, Tezpur, Assam for their inspiration and suggestions.

I acknowledge the assistance rendered by Shri K. Kendulna, S. K. Tanti, S. Kurmi, R. Karmakar at the time of collection of relevant statistics and informations related to this work.

I take this opportunity to record my thanks to Shri K. C. Das and Shri U. Baruah for providing me the much needed typing assistance I wish to thank Shri H. Deka, R. K. Mishra, R. Sarmah, and B. Kalita for their help in statistical and mathematical works.
Finally my deep appreciation goes to my wife, Mrs. R. Saikia and other members of my family whose persistent support throughout the entire period of my research has been an immense source of inspiration in completing the work.
