ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work would not have been possible without the help that I received from different quarters. I am particularly greatful to my supervisor, Prof. Priyam Goswami of Gauhati University for her constant encouragement and guidance.

I am thankful to the Indian Council of Historical Research (ICHR) who awarded me a fellowship to undertake the study. I wish to express my gratitude and appreciation to the Librarians and the staffs of the National Archives of India, New Delhi, West Bengal State Archives Calcutta; Assam State Archives, Dispur; National Library, Calcutta; K. K. Handique Library, Gauhati University, Guwahati; ICHR North-East Study Centre Library, Guwahati, Director of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati; District Library, Guwahati; Directorate of Library Sciences, Guwahati; Baptist Church Library, Guwahati; Benudhar Sarma Library, Guwahati; Pandu College Library, Guwahati. My thanks are also due to the authors whose works have been consulted and utilised.

My family members have extended unfailing support and encouragement throughout the period. I am largely indebted to my husband, Shantanu, who has always supported me, and to my daughter, Stuti, I owe a special kind of debt. Thanks are also due to my parents, my brother, Dr. Hrishikesh Baruah and sister-in-law, Dr. Tulika Baruah for their support and encouragement. I also wish to thank City Offset for printing the manuscript.

The responsibility for the opinions expressed and conclusions arrived at in this study is entirely mine.
