ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am immensely indebted to express my respects and profound gratitude to my beloved Research Supervisor Prof. H. Lajipathi Rai, Department of Commerce, Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur, who has been to me much more than a mere Research Supervisor. Without his constant guidance, advice and effort, it would never have been possible for me to make any attempt of this sort. I am extremely grateful for his invaluable instructions and guidance.

I am grateful to all faculty members in the Department of Commerce and also thankful to Sri A.V. Ramana Lecturer in Commerce for extending his help in preparation of master charts and tables.

I am grateful to the authors of books and magazines which helped a lot in the makeup of the thesis. I would also like to acknowledge my gratitude to all the residents of Housing Board Colony in Anantapur town who have spared their invaluable time in the filling up of questionnaires and also enlightened me on various aspects pertinent to my study during the survey.

I am also thankful to Sri K. Abdul Waris, my co-scholar who has not only extended his help in collecting materials but also helped a lot in typing my thesis at various stages of my research work.
I am also thankful to Mr. C.R. Anand Rao, Secretary, Middle Income Group, A.P., Housing Board Colony in Anantapur Town for extending his co-operation in collecting questionnaires from the respondents and giving valuable suggestions and information during the survey.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge my deep gratitude to all near and dear who helped me directly and indirectly in the completion of this dissertation work.
