CONTENTS

CHAPTER 1 HOUSING SECTOR IN INDIA P.No. 1-152

Introduction - Importance of Housing - Housing Deficit - Shortage in Rural Housing in India - Government efforts - The Government, The Research Development and Extension Agencies - Central Building Research Institute (CBRI), National Buildings Organisation (NBO), Housing and Urban Development Corporation (HUDCO), National Co-operative Housing Federation of India (NCHF), Structural Engineering Research Centre (SERC), Regional Housing Development Centre (RHDC), National Council for Cement and Building Materials (NCCBM), National Test House (NTH), Indian Plywood Industries Research Institute (IPIRI), Control and Research Laboratory, Bhubaneswar (CRLB), Building Centre Division, Madras (BCDM).

CHAPTER 2 AIM AND METHODOLOGY P.153-169

The Present Study - Objectives of the Study - Methodology - Significance of the study - Survey of literature.
CHAPTER 3 CONSUMER OPINION ON QUALITY OF HOUSING CONSTRUCTIONS AND SERVICES: RESPONSE ANALYSIS P.170-186

Introduction - Age of the households - Type of Allottees MIG/LIG - Distribution of Respondents based on occupation - Awareness among Allottees about various Acts - Transfer of ownership to the allottees - Reasons expressed by the allottees for the failure in construction of houses by the Housing Board within reasonable time - Lack of co-ordination between Housing Board and other agencies - Satisfaction about building design - Non-intimation of the ultimate cost of the house - Present employment status of the allottees - Satisfaction about various facilities in the Housing Board Colony - Need for infrastructural facilities - Nearness of Institutional Facilities - Quality of construction - Conclusion.

CHAPTER 4 FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS P. 187-206

Quality Housing: A Prime Necessity - Housing Policy has come to stay - Housing Consumer Defined - Greater Awareness is created - Grievances Expressed on the quality of construction - Wood material quality is poor - Poor plastering - Width of Walls - Height of the Slab - Design of the House is not upto the mark - Other problems revealed in the study - Acute water problems - High flouride content - Life expectancy is doubted - Unilateral conditions laid by Board - Undue delay in construction and finalisation of cost - Registration of house sought to be done in time - Allottee must have a say - Place shall be earmarked for public parks - Tamil Nadu Housing Policy suggested - Legal intricacies must be cleared - Housing Policy needs scrupulous implementation - Real beneficiaries must be identified - other suggestions:
Need for Co-ordination among government agencies - Municipality Role - Non-issue of remittance receipts - Need for police outpost - Need for street lights - Transport facility - Setting up Fuse-call office - Conclusion.

QUESTIONNAIRE P.207-209

BIBLIOGRAPHY P.210-216