CONTENTS

A. Preface and Acknowledgement

B. CHAPTER I

Introduction:

I) Land and the people of the study area

II) Topic of the proposed study

III) Objectives

IV) Importance and significance

V) Scope of the Study

VI) Methodology

VII) Statistics of Field Data

VIII) Hypothesis

IX) Works so far done in this context

X) Problems faced on the proposed study

CHAPTER II

Folklore and Folk life: a general discussion

CHAPTER III

Psychoanalysis and Sigmund Freud: A General Discussion

A) Psychoanalysis: Definition and Objectives

B) Psychoanalysis as a Method
C) Psychoanalysis as an Interpretative art  49-50

D) Theoretical Concepts of Psychoanalysis  50-51
a) The Mind: Its Levels and Divisions  51-55
b) The Unconscious Motives  55-57
c) Psychic Determinism  57
d) Infantile Sexuality  57-59

(Photographs, Plate: 1-Plate: 21)
e) Oedipus Complex and Electra Complex  59-60
f) Castration  60-61
g) Fixation  61-62
h) Displacement  62-63
i) The Libido Theory  63-64
j) Narcissism  65-66
k) The Theory of Instincts  66-68
l) Anxiety  68-69
m) The defense Mechanism  69-73
n) Freudian Symbols  74-82
    (Photographs of symbols)
o) Catharsis  82-83
p) Perversion  83-84
q) Primary and secondary processes  84-85
r) Wish fulfillment  85-86
   “The child is being beaten”  86-87

CHAPTER IV  88-166

A. Verbal Art: An Introduction  88-94

B. Different Genres of Verbal Art or Oral Narratives
A) List Of Folktales Collected Both From Primary and Secondary Sources:

1) Tejimala 167-168
2) Panesai 168-169
3) Champavati 169-172
4) The Crow and the Wren 172-173
5) The Kite’s Daughter’s tale 173
6) The Stepmother 173-175
7) Maiong Burhi, the House Goddess 175-179
8) Kamala Kuwari 179
9) Jali Patalir Sadhu 180-182
10) Teja and Teji 182-184
11) Officer Teton 185-186
12) Laban Kuwari 186-189
13) A Famous Thief 189-191
14) The Tale of Bhut-Bhutuni 191-193
15) Gul Champa 193-195
16) Malati and Her Daughter 195-197
17) The Tale of Goragni 198-199
18) Kata Joa Nak Kharanire Dhak 199-200
19) Tale of Row Fish 200-201
20) A Boy Called Jitu 202-203
21) Shato Cat’s Tale 203-204
22) Sukhmal Konwar 204-206
23) Dalim Konwar (Pomegranate Prince) 206-208
24) Abanti Konwar 208-210
25) The Proud Princess 210-211
26) Ton Thom 211-213

B) Analysis of the Selected Texts

1. Tejimala 214-220
2. Panesai 220-227
3. The Crow and the Wren 228-243
4. The Kite’s Daughter’s tale 243-251

CHAPTER VI 252-262

Summary and concluding remarks:

Map of Assam: High lighting three Districts, Nalbari, Darrang and Sonitpur. 263

BIBLIOGRAPHY 264-274

List of Informants 275-277

GLOSSARY 278-282

INDEX 283-287

PHOTOGRAPHS