ACKNOWLEDGMENT

First and foremost, I thank God, the Almighty, the most merciful and beneficent for blessing me with the confidence in completing this research work.

The investigator wishes to place on record her profound indebtedness with deep felt gratitude to her research guide Dr. Bindu R.L., Associate Professor, Department of Education, University of Kerala for her meticulous guidance, valuable suggestions, immense patience, constant encouragement and kind treatment throughout the conduct of the study.

The investigator expresses her inexplicable thanks to Shri. K.O.Ratnakaran, Principal, Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya, Chettechal, Trivandrum for all the help extended to her and also for giving all facilities in the school for the conduct of the study. The investigator expresses her sincere thanks and obligation to all the faculty members, students and non teaching staff of the school for their whole hearted cooperation, support and encouragement given to her in the course of the study.

The principals, lecturers, teachers and students of the secondary schools are remembered with gratitude for the co-operation rendered by them in collecting data for the study.

The investigator recalls with gratitude the assistance rendered by the administrators and staff of all the fields/sites visited as part of data collection.

The investigator is extremely thankful to the librarians of the SCERT library, Kerala University library, Department of Education library and N.S.S. Training college library for providing help in collecting literature and reference materials.

The investigator is extremely thankful to all her family members for their self less help and constant encouragement throughout the conduct of the study. She also expresses sincere thanks to her college principal and colleagues for their inspiration during the study.

The investigator gratefully acknowledges all those who rendered immense help directly or indirectly in the completion of the research study.

Sreekala K.L.