ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is out of sincere interest that I undertook this topic for my research. As a teacher, I wanted to explore the area of philosophy of education. I was very much fascinated by Swami Vivekananda’s philosophy ever since my student days. So I wanted to make a thorough study of Vivekananda’s philosophy of education in particular. Several people have helped me in various ways in writing and preparing this thesis.

My deep and sincere thanks are due to my research supervisor Dr. G. Vedaparayana garu, Emeritus Professor, Department of Philosophy for his valuable guidance in completing my research work. I cherish his encouragement and the inspiring discussions I had with him during the period of my research.

The Department of philosophy has been a fertile ground for research and learning. My interaction with the faculty, visiting professors, and research scholars has contributed a great deal to my understanding of Vivekananada’s conceptions of education. Prof. P. Ramakrishna Chowdary, Prof. S. Abdul Sattar, Chairman, BOS, Prof. C. Umakantham, Head of the Department, Dr. P. Chinnaiah, Associate Professor, Dr. B.C. Obula Reddy and Dr. M. Chandraiah have provided me invaluable insights into the Swami Vivekananada’s conception of education. I place on record my deep sense of gratitude to all of them for their concern and cooperation.
Sri Venkateswara University Library provided me access to relevant literature, besides enabling me access to INFLIBNET. The SVETA and the Sanskrit Vidyapeet Libraries also provided me access to the value resources. I would like to thanks the librarians and their staff of these libraries.

My mother Smt. P. Mary Anasuyamma’s love and affection and my father Sri P. Daveedu’s, and brother Sri P. Ratna Samuel’s, support have been there throughout my study and research. I am grateful to them.

My family members Smt. T. Sujatha, my wife, my little children, namely, Anush and Sumani gave me good cooperation in completing my research work. I thank them also.

I also thank Sri V. Rama Prasad, Senior Assistant, Finance Branch, for typing the thesis in the given time in a tidy manner.
