Acknowledgement

I would first and foremost like to thank god almighty for seeing me through such an ambitious project like this.

It is a privilege on my part to express my heartfelt gratitude towards my reverend guide Dr Gulnar Sharma-Director,JDBIMS,for her patient guidance during my research and study at JDBIMS, She has rendered unconditional support for the research activity. She has always been accessible and willing to help with research, making it an exceptionally rewarding time for me. This work was not possible without her positive inputs.

I shall always be indebted for her sensitivity, outstanding guidance, sound advice and lots of innovative ideas.

I am grateful to S.N.D.T for providing me an opportunity of research work and I would like to thank the Pro-Vice Chancellor Dr Vandana Chakravarthy and Vice Chancellor Dr Vasudha Kamat.

I would also like to thank the staff at JDBIMS, for helping me in all ways to make the research work run smoothly.

The concept for this research was initiated by several discussions I have had with experts and government officials about statutory policies and its relevance in the society. Their insights and input shall always been with me throughout the course of this research and I would like to record my appreciation for it.

I would like to thank Mr J C Sharma, Mr and Mrs Deshmukh and my colleagues Dr.Mrs Preeti Kulkarni, Chartered Accountant Amit Geet and everyone at Navjeevan institute of management, especially my students who were patient listeners to my lectures on Entrepreneurship.

I would like to take this wonderful opportunity to thank my husband Mr. Jitendra Khaire and my two lovely children and my parents, in-laws for providing me a loving and caring environment to complete my research. They constantly rallied round and cheered me to consistently work on the research.

Last but not the least I would like to extend my sincere thanks to all my respondents, the women entrepreneurs from all over Maharashtra without whom this work would not be possible.
