ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work has brought a lot of people close to my heart and it is not possible to express my gratitude towards them in a few words. First of all, I acknowledge Professor K. Krishnan, my guiding teacher for his non compromising nature towards research. He introduced me to a new field of research which I had never thought of. He provided me a platform to do an independent research and forced me to think differently. He was vigilant in making the necessary corrections when it was most needed. I thank him for being a wonderful guide.

I thank Prof. P. Ajithprasad; Mr. Pratapchandran, Associate Professor; Prof. Kuldeep Bhan and Prof. V. H Sonawane for their enriching lectures and sharing their experience and understanding. I am grateful to them all for allowing me to attend the unending sessions of discussions at the department and in the field. I thank Dr. Preeti Panchwani, Dr. Sushmita Sen and Dr. Ambika Patel for their support, encouragement and informative discussions.

My long stay in the department was made memorable by the friendship and support rendered by the non teaching staff members of the department. I use this opportunity to thank Shri Rameesh Khatri, Shri Piyush Khatri, Shri Bhagubhai, Shri Sukhrambhai, Shri Arun Pawar, Shri Rajesh Bhrambhatt, Shri Salim, Shri I.I. Sheikh (Lala Bhai), Shri Somabhai and Smt. Hansaben for all assistance.

I am thankful to Ms. Indra Bhagya, (Former Librarian, Department of Archaeology) for her love and creating the sense of urgency in my work. It would not have been possible to complete the research without the hearty supports of my seniors and colleagues. I thank Dr. Kishore Raghubans, Mr. Arun Malik, Dr. Bradley Chase, Dr. Kajal Shah, Dr. Kiran Dimri for lively discussions and unending tea sessions.

I am greatful to Dilip, Bhanu, Thomson, Smitha, Bratati, Charu and Sujata for sharing and digging me out of the frustrating moments of my PhD life.
I gratefully acknowledge Indian Council for Historical Research (ICHR) for their financial support.

I am thankful to Shri Y. S Rawat, The Director, State Archaeology Department Gujarat State for giving an opportunity to be a member of his excavation and exploration team. My tenure under the state Archaeology Department as Field Archaeologist was enriching in many ways as it allowed me to practice Archaeology in a more prolonged way.

I am grateful to Rajesh S.V and Prabhin Sukumaran for all the help and assistance rendered by them during the course of my research. I thank them for spending their precious time for editing the thesis and always being a great source of relief. I remember all my hostelites who have always been close to my heart for encouraging me and made me do this thesis.

I am thankful to IIRNS staff and family for their support and encouragement. I have no words to express my gratitude towards my family who backed me in all up and downs in my life. I thank my parents, brother, Sumita and Chindu for all their love, support and encouragement though out these years.

Finally Dr. Ajit Kumar, Reader and Head of the Department of Archaeology, University of Kerala, Kariavattom Campus for his constant encouragement.

I love you all.

November 2010

Vinod.V