Acknowledgement

No serious effort in life is totally accomplished by oneself. This work of mine is also not an exception. The completion of my work, gives me immense pleasure to express my gratitude, feeling, regards and acknowledgement to those whom I respect, honour and remember for their kindness, good win and helpful assistance during the course of this work.

“If I have seen further it is by standing on the shoulders of giants.” -with these words of Sir Isaac Newton I want to thank my Mentor, my Guru. I am highly indebted to my sagacious, erudite and intellect supervisor Prof. S. P. Vyas, Head, Department of Biotechnology, Dr. H.S. Gour University, Sagar whose excellent and constant guidance, intellect vision and research skills helped me in steering the present work upto its completion. His critical assessment, affectionate words and ever available patience always kept me charged and motivated me to perform best even in the situations of ups and downs. His humble nature, great aura of positive energy possessed by him and personal care towards me cannot be described in words, which led me to improve myself not only in academics but also morally and socially. He has been a constant source of inspiration in the most critical part of the hour; perhaps some feelings are best expressed when left unsaid.

I would like to thank my co-supervisor Prof. G. P. Agrawal, Head of Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Dr. H.S. Gour University, Sagar for his timely help throughout the project as well as providing the infrastructural facilities for carrying my work. He is preeminent personality behind successful completion of my work. It is his staunch cognizance, diligence and immense criticism which outcome in conquering this task. I bow my head in reverence to him.

It is my extreme privilege to gratuitously convey my special thanks to all the faculty member of Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Prof. V.K. Dixit, Prof. N.K. Jain, Prof. M.D. Kharya, Prof. D.V. Kohli, Prof. A.K. Singhai, Prof. R.K. Agrawal, Prof. S.K. Jain, Dr. Asmita Gajbhiye, Dr. Vandana Soni, Dr. Sushil Kashaw and Miss Lopamudra Banerjee for their immense help and support during my academic carrier.

I am sincerely grateful to Prof. Shyam Sunder, Department of Medicine, Institute of Medical Sciences, Banaras Hindu University (BHU), Varanasi for providing the facilities for carrying out ex vivo studies. His timely help was a very big factor in the completion of my work. The help and affection extended by Ms Shalini Gautam during my stay at Varanasi will always be immemorable for me.

I am highly obliged to Sun Pharma, Baroda for providing me the gift sample of PLGA and Lupin Laboratories, Pune for providing me the gift samples of Rifampicin and Isoniazid so that I could proceed my work on time.
I record my thanks to ICMR New Delhi for the award of Senior Research Fellowship.

Working on a Ph.D. and writing a thesis is certainly a formidable endeavor. However, the last four and a half years have been very enjoyable and a number of people have helped me reach this point. The friendly atmosphere and help rendered by the “DDRLers” in gratefully acknowledged. I find no words to put when it comes to acknowledge the help, innovative ideas and all the laughter we shared; thanks Swati ma’am, Amit sir, Kapil sir, Neeraj sir, Abhinav sir, Shailja, Bhuvaneshwar, Madhu, Rishi, Shivani and Udita.

I greatly acknowledge the kind cooperation, valuable suggestions and help rendered to me by respected seniors, my friends and juniors during my stay in department. I will always commemorate the friendly atmosphere and cooperation. “Friendship is not a matter of being present with someone, it is a matter of being present to someone”. A special word of thanks to my friends who always stood beside me and I felt so contended with them, had a feeling that there is somebody who will always be with me, no matter how the winds changed. The selfless interest, constant encouragement and moral support given by my friends cannot be thanked in words. Thanks for the special joys u all gave, for all the ways you all showed you care, for all the times when you have been there...

I offer my warmest acknowledgement to the non-teaching staff for their timely help during my work.

"Silences make the real conversations between relations for its not the saying but never needing to say that counts”. Papa, you are the very best and I really admire and love you. My loving bhaiya-bhabhi and didi-jijaji who have been my pillar, my stone of strength. Their continual flow of moral support and suggestions at divergent stages of laughter, love and tears boosted my spirits. They owe a lot, being very special for me. Sometimes it becomes really hard to pick up the right words for those whose love and care is fathomless. All words could not sum up the contribution of Simant, for the support he has given me over the last couple of years. Finally I would like to thank my in-laws; Mummy-Papa, Bhabhi-Bhaisaab for standing beside me during all thick and thins. They gave much more than I ever asked. Thanks to my family for being there for me.

Lastly I would like to thank all those helped me directly or indirectly during this work.
