LIST OF FIGURES

1.1 Modes of international service transaction ........................................ 16
1.2 Various forms of international movement of service suppliers ........................ 19
1.3 Gains and costs of mode 4 trade .................................................. 23
1.4 Location of the sample states selected for fieldwork ................................ 43
3.1 Percentage of IENs qualified in the NCLEX-RN examination during 1983-2006 ...... 125
3.2 Annual growth rate of IENs qualified in NCLEX examination from Philippines,
Canada, India, Ireland, and China during 1983-2006 .............................. 128
3.3 Percentage distribution of initial registration of UK and foreign trained nurses (including EEA and non EEA applicants) during 1993/94 to 2007/08)........... 138
3.4 Country-wise growth rate of initial registration to NMC during 1998/99 to 2007/08 .............................................................................................................. 140
3.5 Country-wise percentage of first time appeared IENs qualifying CRNE........ 146
3.6 Growth rate of foreign trained nurses from top source countries to Canadian RN nursing work force during 1999-2006 .............................................................. 150 3.7 Annual growth rate of the number of foreign trained nurses working in different set ups of health care industry of Saudi Arabia during 1999-2007............. 160
4.1 Normal density plot of duration of stay of return migrants ....................... 209
4.2 Normal density plot of duration of stay of potential migrants ..................... 209
5.1 Trade restrictiveness index for mode 4 trade in nursing services ................. 263
6.1 Mode wise nature of market access commitments on trade in nursing services by developed and developing countries made till 2010 ..................................... 310
6.2 Mode wise nature of national treatment commitment on trade in nursing services by developed and developing countries made till 2010 ............................... 311
7.1 Indian Nursing Industry ........................................................................ 350
Annex. Fig. 1 Impact of invisible balance on current account balance of India during 1995-2008 .......................................................................................................... 394