ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my sincere regard to my guide Dr. I.A. Vora, Retired Professor & Head, Department of Education, Sardar Patel University, for his constant guidance and encouragement to complete this research work with confidence. Though, he is at a far distance during the study under process, the constant flow of guidance, document reading and corrections, suggestions and further guideline for the study ahead, has been maintained sincerely. Otherwise study might have not been completed by me. Once again I felt the sincere regard for my guide.

I can not forget Dr. I.J. Upadhyaya, Reader (Retd.), P.G. Department of Education for his continuous guidance and encouragement during studies. Even after retirement also, he has shown his keen interest, whenever he was consulted. I deeply acknowledged his contribution for the present studies.

I am thankful to Prof. J.K. Dave, Head, P.G. Department of Education, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar for his encouragement during the studies. My thanks are also due to other members of the P.G. Department of Education for their cooperation.
I must not forget to remember respected Dr. Ramesh Kothari, Reader, P.G. Department of Education (CASE), M.S. University, Vadodara for his special assistance for statistical procedure and interpretation for the study. His motivational approach to Ph.D. candidate is unforgettable as well as solely benefited to research orientation. Once again I express my sincere regard to Dr. Kothari as Philosopher, guide and friend.

I am also thankful to all the Principals, Teachers and School organizers of the Higher Secondary Schools in the State of Gujarat for their valuable co-operation during the data collection stage.

I am also thankful to my colleagues and friends, who have extended their co-operation in one way or the other at the various stages of the study.

I am also thankful to my wife and daughter who had always a source for inspiration in the present study.

I wish to take this opportunity to thanks librarian and the computer typist for providing me necessary help while collecting relevant reference material and time bound neat and clean typing work respectively.
