“Gratitude is a rare flower which only noble hearts pluck to offer it to God”. With grateful hearts, I acknowledge with gratitude, the innumerable graces and blessings I received from the almighty and for his guidance throughout my life.

It is a matter of great privilege for me to work under the able and highly exceptional guidance of Dr. J. Sannappa, Department of Physics, Yuvaraja’s College, Mysore, who has nurtured my capabilities and always gave me ample freedom. His kind understanding, encouragement, abiding compassion, extraordinary patience, energetic smile, optimistic attitude, critical judgments and above all trust in my abilities kept me going and ultimately towards the attainment of this goal.

It is a pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Nagaraj Nayak, Department of studies in Chemistry, Manasagangotri, Mysore for his encouragements at all stages of the work and providing technical facility. For their timely assistance in the laboratories and their invaluable help, moral support to full this thesis.

Words are not enough to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to Prof. Umesh, Department of Biotechnology, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, Mysore for his immense help in my studies. Inquisitive mind and scientific attitude have made an everlasting impact on me and boosted my confidence. My special thank to Dr. Lokanath rai Department of Chemistry, MGM for their kind concern, comments and timely tips which are invaluable.

I wish to thank Prof. C. Ranganathaiah Chairperson, Prof. L.Parmesh Former Chairperson, Prof.T.K.Umesh, Former Chairperson, Prof. K.S.Malesh Prof.D.Revannasiddaiah, Prof.R.Somashekar and other faculty member, DOS in Physics, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, Mysore for their valuable suggestion.

I would like to express my gratitude to Smt B.N.Leelavathamma., Principal, J.S.S.College for Women, for her continuous support and help during the course of my research work.

I acknowledge with gratitude to Prof. Maryiaiah, Principal, Government First Grade College, Hullahalli for their help and valuable academic suggestions.

I have a great pleasure in expressing my thanks to Smt.S.P.Kalavathi Sannappa for her support and help during the course of my research work.

I also extend my sincere thanks to my teachers, friends, appreciate some of my colleagues and other for their help and cooperation during different stages of the research work, whose infinite love and affection had always strengthened my determination.
Words are meaningless to express my unaccountable feeling to my father Sri. H.R.Srinivasamurthy, mother Smt. Rajamma, and brothers M.S.Madhusudhan and Bhaskar for their belief in me. Kind understands, patience, perseverance and above all in making me what I am today. I owe them more than anything else in the world.

Special thanks are also due to my beloved wife Mrs.Deepthi.P., without whose help and support, none of my dreams would have ever come true and without who life would have never been the same for me.

Finally I wish to express my sincere thanks to all my friends who are directly and indirectly rendered their help for this work.
