ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a pleasant aspect that I have now the opportunity to express my gratitude to the people who helped me in my research period.

First and foremost, It gives me an immense pleasure to express my deepest gratitude to my Research Supervisor Dr. M.V. Subramanyam, Principal, SREC, NANDYAL, KURNOOL (Dist.), A.P., INDIA., who stood as a true guide and philosopher during my research period. Without his constant support, guidance and encouragement, the completion of this research work would not have been possible. I am very much thankful to him for having given me an opportunity to be as his Research Scholar and for sharing his enormous knowledge with me.

I am extremely thankful to my co-supervisor Dr. M.N. Giriprasad, Professor, Dept. of ECE, JNTUACE, Ananthapuramu, A.P., INDIA., who helped, encouraged and directed me in the right way and supported me with his valuable suggestions which made my research work come to a successful completion. He was always there when ever I required help and had even granted me freedom to pursue the research on my line of thought, with all due suggestions.

I thank Dr. Y.V.N. Krishna Murthy, Director, IIRS (Indian Institute of Remote Sensing), ISRO group, Dehradun and extend my gratitude towards him for his support and encouragement throughout my research period at IIRS with timely suggestions and provision of needy information about the improvement of the research work .

I also extend my heartiest thanks to NRSC (National Remote Sensing Centre) team, ISRO group, Hyderabad for providing different satellite images and without their proper support and guidance, the completion of this research work would not have been possible.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude and thanks to all the faculty members, as well as the non-teaching staff of IIRS and NRSC for all the support, help and knowledge imparted to me by them during my training period where I stay at IIRS and NRSC.
I also extend my heartiest thanks to my previous college (Sri Sai Institute of Technology and Science, Rayachoty, A.P.) management for giving permission to go to IIRS training programme.

I would like to extend my earnest and whole hearted thanks to my most loving and dearest parents without whose blessings I would not have accomplished any assignment in my life and become successful.

I am greatly indebted to my wife, Smt. G. Naveena, without whose constant support and cooperation, I would not have been successful in this endeavor. I appreciate the understanding and moral cooperation of my sons Chi.Saketh and Chi.Punith in completing this work. I am also indebted to all my family members, well wishers and my friends, whose support and affection strengthened my resolve.

Finally, I would like to thank all those who have helped me directly or indirectly for the successful accomplishment of this doctoral thesis.
