ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A researcher is always helped and influenced by many during the writing of his research work. I have received help and support from many people during the writing of this project. It is my devout duty to recognize their help.

Words are inadequate to express my respectful and heartiest gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Prof. (Dr.) C.P. Sheoran, Former Head & Dean, Department of Law, M.D. University, Rohtak for his fatherly behaviour, keen interest, inspiring suggestions, sympathetic attitude, pains-taking supervision, affectionate guidance and constant encouragement in the work of this monograph. His demanding and exacting standards induced in me the spirit of hardwork and self discipline as a researcher. His keen interest in my work gave me the much required self-reliance and confidence. It is the unreserved scholarly guidance and sparing of time for me by my respected teacher that I am able to complete this work.

It is a matter of inordinate "amour propre" and declaration for me to express my deep sense of devoutly gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) (Mrs.) Promila Chugh, Head and Dean, Department of Law, M.D. University, Rohtak for her adroit teachings, unceasing stimulus and above all his firm confidence in me.

I am highly indebted to Prof. (Dr.) Preet Singh, Director, University Institute of Law & Management Studies, Gurgaon, whose profound scholarly and critical comments helped me to develop and shape this study. My thanks are also due to all the teachers and non-teaching staff of faculty of law, M.D. University for their generous assistance rendered to me throughout my research. I am also thankful to Prof. (Dr.) Naresh Kumar, Professor, Department of Law, M.D. University, Rohtak for his treasured and purposeful suggestions which heavily enriched the substance of this study. I want to acknowledge my profound regards for Dr. A.S. Dalal, Associate Professor, Department of Law, M.D. University, Rohtak, who has always been a source of inspiration for my academic pursuits. I am also thankful to Mrs. Kavita Dhull, Assistant Professor, Department of Law, MDU, Rohtak.

I offer my gratitude and appreciation to my revered friend Dr. Anupam Kurlwal, Assistant Professor-in-Law, University Institute of Law & Management Studies, Gurgaon, for the inspiration he has been to me- through his magnificent writings, erudite research and as an alive portrayal of a teacher thriving. I am thankful to him for sparing out his precious time to actively help me in editing available material and giving his decisive and productive comments on different stages of my manuscript. His genuine support was a tremendous moral encouragement for me. The kind of debt which I owe to him for his constructive co-operation at each and every stride cannot be put into words.

My thanks are due to Sh. Deepender Hooda, Member of Parliament, Rohtak and Prof. Sampat Singh, Member of Legislative Assembly, Nalwa, Hisar for their help in one way or another, without their encouragement and help I could not complete this work.

I want to acknowledge my deep regards to my father Late Sh. Mahender Singh Sindhu and my mother Smt. Rajbala for inculcating the values and making me what I am today. Anju Sindhu, My Wife, I lovingly appreciate the co-operation given by her during the moments of exhaustion and depression while pursuing this work. I wish to place in record my sincere thanks to my all family members specially my two sons, Abhirup Sindhu & Maheen Sindhu who very willingly endured certain hardships which resulted from my preoccupation with the completion of this work.

My expression of debt is due to my friends Mr. Surender Nara, Mrs. Renu Solkhe and OmPrabha Assistant Professors-in-Law, at University Institute of Law & Management Studies, Gurgaon, who are always with me in anything I do, and who constantly encouraged me to complete this work. I also extend my thanks to my friends Sumit Dalal, Political Activist, Naveen Ahalawat, Advocate, Jayendra Kumar, A.D.A., and Ravi Bundela, Assistant Professor-in-Law, NLU, Gujarat for their unfailing intellectual and emotional support and for making me available valuable material. I also extend my sincere gratitude to faculty members of University Institute of Law & Management Studies, Gurgaon for their cooperation during the moments of exhaustion while pursuing this work. I am thankful to all my classmates, nears and dears whose sincere back-up was a great moral support for me.

I should not miss the chance to acknowledge the aid and services rendered to me by the library staff of Institute of Constitutional and Parliamentary Studies, Delhi particularly Sushila Rana (Librarian) and Sushil Kumar, Accountant. I am also thankful to the librarian Sh. Khemraj and library staff of University Institute of Law and Management Studies, Gurgaon, I am also thankful to the librarian Meena Malla and library staff of Indian Parliament, Delhi. I am also thankful to the librarian and library staff of Faculty of Law, M.D. University, Rohtak specially Inder Singh and Ramdiya. I am also thankful to the librarian and library staff of Central Library, M.D. University, Rohtak especially Balwan Singh. I am also thankful to all the librarians and library staffs of Indian Law Institute Delhi, Kurukshetra University, Haryana Vidhan Sabha and Delhi University. I thank all these for their co-operation and for making me available the standard books, periodicals, journals and other relevant materials required to complete this treatise.

I have heavily relied on several sources of information emanating from the scholarships of many pioneering and contemporary foreign and Indian authors on the subject whose works have been of immense utility for bringing out the present work and the author acknowledges the same with gratitude. I acknowledge gratefully the contributions of other authors, lawyers, judges, jurists, thinkers and philosophers also; whose names do not find mention due to unavoidable physical constraints. The authors and writers, who have been relied upon and the writings which have been used as a source material have been referred to and acknowledged in foot-notes, which may be useful for the more inquisitive readers who want to pursue the subject for further study.

Last but not least I wish to record the assistance of my good friend Sanjeev Chugh, University Internet Café, Rohtak. He was instrumental in typing the manuscript elegantly and on time, also exhibiting patience while correcting the several drafts. Finally, I thank my Guru and Almighty God for showering blessings and enabling me to complete this work.

I vehemently inscribe this work in the name of my revered father.
