ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am greatly indebted to Dr. R.K. Arora, Department of History, Correspondence Courses, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for guiding me sympathetically and patiently throughout my work. He encouraged me at every step and his suggestions and instructions were extremely helpful in surmounting problems that I faced during the course of my work. In fact, but for his guidance and extremely helpful attitude, the work would never have been completed in this form.

I am also greatly indebted to the Jana Sangh leaders both of all-India status like Balraj Madhok, Atal Bihari Vajpayee, L.K. Advani etc., and of this province like Baldev Parkash, Balram Ji Das Tandon, Hit Abhilashi etc. These leaders were kind enough to provide me with a good deal of background information about the party. I am also indebted to the Akali leaders like Prakash Singh Badal, Surjeet Singh Barnala and Balwant Singh. They gave me many insights into the psyche of the Akali Party vis-a-vis the Bharatiya Jana Sangh.

I also take this opportunity to thank the Librarian of the Punjab Vidhan Sabha Library who provided me necessary material and documents required for my purpose. I have also consulted the relevant material from the Punjab Extension Library Ludhiana, Dwarka Das Library, Chandigarh, Panjab University Library, Chandigarh and V.V.B.I. Library, Hoshiarpur. My special thanks are due to the Editor of the 'Organizer' K.R. Malkani.
I owe my profound gratitude to Dr. Ajit Singh Sikka, S.N. College Banga, Surinder Ajnat, B.A.M. Khalsa College Garshanker and Gurmej Ram, Lecturer in Garshanker Higher Secondary School whose support and encouragement helped me greatly in my project.

In the end I must acknowledge my gratitude to Mrs. Parmar who ungrudgingly gave me support at all times during the course of this study. I also record my sense of appreciation for all those who helped me in the completion of this work.

SURINDER SINGH PARMAR

CHANDIGARH,