ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my worthy and talented supervisor Dr. Harish Chandra Sharma, Professor, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his devotion, encouragement and valuable guidance provided to me during the course of this study. Without his able supervision the work might not have been completed as it is now.

I am highly thankful to Dr. Anand Bhushan, Chairman, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his prompt co-operation and help to provide me administrative facilities.

I owe my special thanks to Dr. Rajinder Kaur, Associate Professor, Department of Education (Correspondence Courses), Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, for all possible help rendered to me.

My thanks are due to all the officers, the principals and the vice-principals of government and private schools in Bangkok and some provinces, Thailand, who have extended their help and co-operation during collection of data for the present investigation and have provided all possible assistance.

I am also grateful to the Mahamakut Buddhist University, Bangkok, Thailand, permitting me to carry out this research work. I remember with gratitude and affect the constant encouragement I received from Phra Ṛṇāvarotama (Prayura Santaṅkarā), Vice-Chancellor; Phra Dhammadhajamunī Secretary General; Phra Debvaracārāya, Deputy Secretary General, Phra Rājavaramunī (Amara Ṛṇodaya), Dean of faculty of education, Mahamakut Buddhist University, Thailand. And I offer them my respectful obeisance.

My warm thanks are extended to Miss Ariya Kuha, Phra Sin Ngamprakhon and Mr. Vijay Thakur, for their assistance provided to me from time to time.

I am greatly indebted to my parents and teachers for providing me moral support and inspiring me to put in the best of my abilities in accomplishing the research project.
