ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

If I try to acknowledge all those who have helped me in this journey I may surely miss many names. So, in all humility I say 'thanks a tonne' to one and all.

Words are not enough to express my profound gratitude and reverence for my esteemed supervisor Dr. Pawan K. Kamra, Professor, University School of Open Learning, Panjab University, Chandigarh, who with his scholarly erudition and knowledge, imparted his valuable guidance to me. This research endeavor would not have been possible without his insightful thinking and analytical approach. I am deeply indebted to him for nurturing my research aptitude and enriching this thesis in innumerable ways. I am extremely grateful to him for showing keen interest in the research work and providing me much needed guidance. It is worth mentioning here that his cool temperament and humble nature gave me liberty to bother him at odd hours.

Inspiration and Motivation are the keys to explore and carry out any research work. I feel privileged in saying that my key to this research work has been Dr. R. K. Sharma, Professor, Department of Public Administration, University School of Open Learning, Panjab University, Chandigarh. Dr. R.K. Sharma has been a bountiful source of inspiration during this exploration. I am very thankful and will ever remain grateful for his valuable suggestions and inspirations.

I am also thankful to Dr. Sudhir Sharma, Chairperson, Department of Public Administration, Panjab University, Chandigarh for extending all necessary support to carry out the research work in the department.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr. B.S. Ghuman, Professor, Department of Public Administration and Dean, Faculty of Arts, Panjab University, Chandigarh for his constant support and help during the completion of this research project.

I acknowledge my deep gratitude to Dr. Charanjeev Singh, Reader, Department of Public Administration and Course Co-ordinator in Police Administration, Panjab University, Chandigarh for giving me valuable tips and critical suggestions.

Thanks are due to all the members of teaching faculty and non teaching staff of Department of Public Administration, Panjab University, Chandigarh for their help and cooperation.
My special thanks are due to Dr. Shagun, Lecturer in Commerce, Government College, Naraingarh who came to my rescue whenever there was a bottleneck or the issue required opinion building. I indeed found an invaluable friend in her whose unconditional support helped me to sail through this arduous journey.

I am grateful to the all the officials and staff of the PRIs working at different levels and the staff of the Directorate of Panchayats, Haryana Government. Special thanks are due to Mr. Vinod Kumar, Statistical Officer, Directorate of Panchayats, Government of Haryana, who provided all the data and information required for the work.

I am also thankful to the Dr. Indu Kalia, Head of the Post Graduate Department of Public Administration, Government College for Girls, Sector-11, Chandigarh and all other members of teaching faculty for their cooperation.

It is my proud privilege to thank my well wishers, seniors, colleagues and friends especially Dr. R.K. Dogra, Dr. Bikar Singh, Dr. Puneet Aneja, Souvitho, Kumou Narinder, Raghav, Dr. Chander, Dr. Samir, Chakrawarti and Amit without whose encouragement and motivation the study would not have acquired the present shape.

It is indeed a reality that ever showered blessings of my Parents lent me the much needed moral support in the completion of this project. My sincere thanks are due to my family members who stood by me in thick and thin. My sisters-in-law and brothers Sonia-Subhash and Jyoti-Suresh, my sisters and brothers-in-law Asha-Ashok and Rama-Barjesh always encouraged me to complete the research work at the earliest.

Radhika, Sushant, Palak, Puja, Himanshi, Madhav, Harleen and Mannat for their exuberant smiles and affection which was a source of great inspiration.

Above all my head bows in respect for the ALMIGHTY GOD who gave me strength and kept my spirits high during pursuit of my life.
