APPENDIX - II

ROTTER’S LOCUS OF CONTROL SCALE

(1966)

Age ------------------------
Sex ------------------------ Male/Female College/University------------------------

INSTRUCTIONS: Kindly answer all the questions. Select and mark that alternative which you personally believe to be more true.

I MORE STRONGLY BELIEVE THAT

1. a ☐ Many of the unhappy things in people’s lives are partly due to bad luck.
   b ☐ People’s misfortunes results from the mistake they make.

2. a ☐ One of the major reasons why we have wars is because people don’t take enough interest in politics.
   b ☐ There will always be wars, no matter how hard people try to prevent them.

3. a ☐ In the long run people get the respect they deserve in this world.
   b ☐ Unfortunately an individual’s worth often passes unrecognized no matter how hard he tries.

4. a ☐ The idea that teachers are unfair to students is nonsense.
   b ☐ Most students do not realize the extent to which their grades are influenced by accidental happenings.

5. a ☐ Without the right breaks one can not be an effective leader.
   b ☐ Capable people who fail to become leaders have not taken advantage of their opportunities.

6. a ☐ No matter how hard you try some people just do not like you.
   b ☐ People who can not get others to like them do not understand how to get along with others.

7. a ☐ I have often found that what is going to happen will happen.
   b ☐ Trusting to fate has never turned out as well for me as making a decision to take a definite course of action

8. aD In the case of the well prepared student there is rarely if ever such a thing as an unfair test.
   bD Many times examination questions tend to be so unrelated to course work that studying is really useless.

9. aD Becoming successful is a matter of hard work; luck has little or nothing to do with it.
   bD Getting a good job depends mainly on being in the right place at right time.
10. aD The average citizen can have influence in government decision.
    bD This world is run by few people in power, and there is not much the little guy can do about it.

11. aD When I make plans I am almost certain that I can make them work.
    bD It is not always wise to plane too far ahead because many things can turn out to be a matter of good or bad fortune any how.

12. aD In my case getting what I want has little or nothing to do with luck.
    bD Many times we might just as well decide what to do by flipping a coin.

13. aD Who gets to be the boss often depends on who was lucky enough to be in the right place first.
    bD Getting people to do the right thing depends upon ability; luck has little or nothing with it.

14. aD As far as world affairs are concerned most of us are the victims of forces we can neither understand, not control.
    bD By taking an active part in political and social affairs the people can control world events.

15. aD Most people can not realise the extent to which their lives are controlled by accidental happenings.
    bD There really is no such thing as “luck”.

16. aD It is hard to know whether or not a person really likes you.
    bD How many friends you have depends upon how nice a person you are.

17. aD In the long run the bad things that happen to us are balanced by the good ones.
    bD Most misfortunes are the result of lack of ability, ignorance, laziness or all three.

18. aD With enough effort we can wipe out political corruption.
bD It is difficult for people to have much control over the things politicians do in office.

19. aD Sometimes I cannot understand how teachers arrive at the grades they give.
bD There is a direct connection between how hard I study and the grades I get.

20. aD Many times I feel that I have little influence over the things that happen to me.
bD It is impossible for me to believe that chance or luck plays an important role in my life.

21. aD People are lonely because they do not try to be friendly.
bD There is not much use in trying too hard to please people if they like you, they like you.

22. aD What happens to me is my own doing.
bD Sometimes I feel that I do not have enough control over the direction my life is taking.

23. aD Most of the time I cannot understand why politicians behave the way they do.
bD In the long run the people are responsible for bad government on a national as well as on a local level.