(Let Noble Thoughts Come From All The Universe) Rg. Veda.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The difficult task of completing this research work and accomplishing its objectives would have remained at the level of conceptualisation if not for the tremendous support, untiring encouragement and unconditional assistance from different quarters.

At the very outset I wish to express my profound gratitude and deepest gratitude to my supervisor Dr. B. S. Mahadevaiah, Chairman, Department of Sanskrit, Kuvempu University, whose inspiring guidance has made it possible for me to complete this task in the present form. I can but only say that without his personal interest this study would not have become a reality.

How can I express enough my deepest sense of affection and feeling of obligation to my intimate friend and husband Dr. Vighnesh N. Bhat, Professor and Chairman, Department of Post-Graduate Studies in Sociology, Kuvempu University for all his help? Formal it would be to thank him as he is a part of my thought and action.

I am indebted to Prof. Vidwan V. N. Bhat, Prof. Shrikanth Joshi and Prof. Ananthpadmanabha of the Department Sanskrit, Sahyadri College, Shimoga for their precious suggestions during the course of this study.

It is a pleasure to work with persons who care for quality work. In this context, I gratefully remember Dr. M. B. Gururaj, Principal, Shri. M. V. P. Aradhya, President and Shri. M. P. Ramesh, Managing Director, Bapuji Ayurvedic Medical College, Shimoga, for their encouragement.
Among those who have been always motivating for my work are the Members of MAHILA, Shimoga. My special thanks are due to Dr. H. S. Krupalini Venkatesh, Prof. Chandrika Krishnappa, Smt. Renuka Chauhan, Smt.Jayalaxmi Fasalkar, Prof. Ratna Prakash, Mrs. Varalaxmi Mohan and Mrs. Bharati Yogeshwar.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not expressed my indebtedness to my reverend teacher Prof. D. N. Shanbhag and other Scholars of Sanskrita Shoda Samsthana for their continuous encouragement all these years.

I am highly indebted to Shri. S. Yogeshwara, Shri. Chandrashekhar. E., Dr. Anjanappa. B. H., Shri. Udaykuamr Deshpande, Shri. S. M. Muthaiah, Shri. T. H. Lokesh and Smt. H. K. Haseena who have assisted me with great concern during the last phase of my research work.

My sincere words of gratitude are extended to the Principals and the Library Staff of Sahyadri Arts & Commerce College, Sahyadri Science College and D. V. S. Degree College, Shimoga and, Post-Graduate Department of Sanskrit, Mangalore University, Kateel.

How can & forget the little ones, my daring daughters Vasudha & Vaishali who have tolerated years of my busy research time. Words fail to express my sentiments and I can only say I love them.

On this occasion, I should not forget to express my deepest feelings of gratitude to all the members of my family – both consanguine and conjugal. Last but not certainly the least, I am thankful to all my teachers and students who have inspired me into the world of living and literature.

Sumithra V. Bhat
