ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is the end of the journey in obtaining my Ph.D. I have not travelled in a vacuum in this journey. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well-wishers, my friends, colleagues and various institutions. At the end of my thesis, it is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.

It is with great pleasure that I express my extreme indebtedness towards my supervisors, Prof. J. S. Brar, UGC Research Scientist 'C' and Prof. M. L. Sharma, Department of Chemistry, Panjab University, Chandigarh for their enlightening guidance and consistent encouragement. Their gentle support and valuable suggestions helped me gain intellectually throughout the tenure of my research work.

I am also grateful to Prof. Paramjit Singh, former chairman and Prof. S. K. Mehta, Chairman, Department of Chemistry, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for providing me the requisite infrastructure and laboratory facility.

To love of my life, my husband Manu Sharma, whose magnificent patronage and assertiveness has brought me where I am today.

A special gratitude is expressed for my mother-in-law (Ms. Satya Sharma) for her incessant moral support and unconditional love. Words are inadequate to reflect the extent of my feelings for my parents (Mr. Gurcharan Dogra and Ms. Urmila Dogra), my brother (Sunny) and sister-in-law (Amita) whose persistent fortitude and firmness at various stages of my life has brought about the accomplishment of this work.

To my friends and seniors, especially, Amandeep Saroa, Promila, Prerna, Neeru, Gargi mam, Priya mam, Ashima mam, Aarti mam and Mehak mam, for their moral boosting attitude which made me succeed in this task. The kind cooperation of my colleagues and well-wishers cannot be expressed in words. I thank them all.

I express my sincere thanks to the non-teaching staff of our department and all those who in one-way or other have supported me.
All these appreciations would be incomplete without a very special thanks to the almighty for giving me all the strength, inspiration and motivation throughout this voyage. This was only you Sai Baba Ji, who gave me the courage to start this arduous task and fulfill it successfully.

Financial assistance provided by Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (C.S.I.R), New Delhi is gratefully acknowledged.
