“In this endless world, nothing is impossible. Every work has its own treasures and it is the hardwork and dedication that opens them up.”

Words are not sufficient to express my feelings at this moment.

It is the almighty that brings out the perseverance and courage in a scamp and makes a supreme. I show my deepest gratitude for his irreplaceable blessings to help me complete this hard task.

I feel privileged to express my deep sense of reverence and gratitude to my honorable guide and mentor, Prof. M. P. Bansal, for being a source of inspiration, encouragement, unending cooperation and sound advice during all stages of my research endeavor.

I take this opportunity to express my regard and thanks to all the faculty members who have influenced me in the best possible ways over these years.

I also wish to express my appreciation for the cooperation extended to me in the department by the technical and clerical staff.

I am grateful to all my colleagues for their timely help and cooperation.

“In prosperity, our friends know us; in adversity, we know our friends”. This is especially true for my dear ones Ashok, Vijaya, Punita, Pooja, Naveen, Sarv Ma'am, Neha and Jasmeet for their unstinting support and help.

Some of the times would have been really grueling had I not got support from my dearest friend Simmi. I thank her from the core of my heart. I also wish to convey my love and thanks to Jaggu for being a constant source of joy and encouragement.

“Family is a haven in a heartless world”

I feel short of words while expressing my indebtedness to my In-Laws. I feel fortunate enough to have been blessed with an adorable family much like my own. Life wouldn't have been the same without the love bestowed upon me by Cookoo di, Bhaji, Nikku, Mannu and Cashu.

I am fortunate to have been born to my parents. To them, I owe more than I can ever express. They are the ones who made me reach the place where I stand today. It is their upbringing that makes me stand apart from rest and in being what I am today. I thank them for their love, unflinching support and unconditional faith in me. Their able guidance has always enlightened, stimulated and encouraged me to move in the right direction. They are the ones who taught me that:

"Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up".

I owe a lot to my sisters Jaya and Purnima and to my brother Samar for their love and affection. I am thankful to them for the support they provided and in cheering me up in times when I felt low.

I am thankful to the Almighty for making me fortunate enough to be blessed with a life partner like Gorkey. He is my strength and it is his constant support, understanding and love that has enabled me sail through the most turbulent of storms. He is the one who makes me believe that when the going gets tough, the tough gets going. I really take pride in the relationship that I have with my husband and I am glad to know that my husband regards me as a woman and as a person. Thanks Gorkey for being there!

There are a lot more minds, thoughts and people who have influenced me in one way or the other and whose names do not appear here. I take this opportunity to thank them all.

Lastly, I would like to mention something which my parents taught since childhood:

"Patience is a tree whose roots are very bitter, but the fruit thereof is very sweet"
