REFERENCES

[26]. Vundela Siva Reddy, Subhash Chandra Kaushik, Sudhir Kumar Tyagi, Naraya Lal Panwar: An Approach to Analyse Energy and

[52] Enrico Sciubba and Goran Wall: A brief Commented History of Exergy From the Beginnings to 2004, International Journal of

[67] Szargut, J: Influence of Regenerative Feed Water Heaters on the Operational Costs of Steam Power Plants and HP Plants"

[71]. V.Saravanan et al., Coal quality impact on plant performance:Coal Abrasivity and combustion aspects, National Conference on Performance Parameters and Standards of Thermal Power Stations in India, 3rd January 2003, Bangalore, India.

[83] Supercritical Steam Power Plants - an Attractive Option for Malaysia; Malaysia Power 2003, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, April 2003; Miro R. Susta & PeterLuby, IMTE AG/Ingchem-Switzerland/Slovak Republic.

[84] Jill Moulton : Once Through and Supercritical tower type boiler technology, Proceedings of the International Conference on [86] Ultra-Supercritical Steam Turbines: Next-Generation Design and Materials; EPRI Journal, April 2002, USA.

[93] D.N. Reddy and Sethi, V.K, “Adoption of Supercritical Technology of Power Generation in India – A monograph”, August 2001, Centre for Energy Technology, Osmania University, Hyderabad, India.

Ministry of Power (http://powerin.nic.in)

International Association for the Properties of Water and Steam, IAPWS Industrial Formulation 1997 for the Thermodynamic Properties of Water and Steam.

http://www.steamtablesonline.com/steam97web.aspx

www.worldenergyoutlook.org

World Energy Council

International Energy Outlook 2010

World Coal Institute

International Energy Agency (http://www.iea.org)