THANKS A MILLION TO...

- Prof. Rajendra Chenni, for his encouragement in attempting an unconventional topic and the scholarly guidance throughout the research process;

- Dr Ramesh B., for his systematic and affectionate approach as a research guide;

- Dr William R. DaSilva, for going through the initial draft of the research proposal and providing valuable suggestions and insights during the course of the study;

- Dr John Johnson, for his help in designing an appropriate research methodology;

- Mr. Victor Vaz, for introducing me to Prof. Chenni and many other wonderful gentlemen at Kuvempu University, and especially for his unstinted friendship;

- Prof. K. R. Nagaraj, for helping me understand Chomsky better;

- Dr Nagamanickam, Dr Laveena Noronha, Prof. Rita Noronha, and Mr. Mohanchandra, for going through my research proposal and suggesting suitable changes;

- Dr Sucharita Suresh, for her assistance in data analysis;

- Librarians and staff of Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai; Centre for Development Studies; Thiruvananthapuram; Madaras Institute of Development Studies, Chennai; Kerala University, Thiruvananthapuram; Kuvempu University, Shimogga; Loyola College, Chennai; St Aloysius College, Mangalore; Loyola College of Social Sciences, Thiruvananthapuram; Mangalore University, Konaje; and Srinivas Institute of Management Studies, Mangalore, for their assistance in finding the right sources for the review of literature;

- Mr. Srinivas for working as a research assistant to help in the stage of data collection;

- Mr. Nagya Naik and his family for their warmth and care during my visits to Jnana Sahyadri;

- Dr. Anjaneyappa B.H. for his special support throughout the process;
Associations and networks of NGOs such as ISI, Delhi and Bangalore; Karnataka Trainers Collective, Mangalore; PUCL, New Delhi; CRY, Bangalore, and CAPART, New Delhi, apart from many senior activists, for helping me develop a good sampling frame and also facilitating the data collection process;

Principals, management and colleagues of St Aloysius College, Roshni Nilaya and Srinivas Institute of Management Studies, Mangalore, for their constant support;

Ms Kavya M., Lawrence Fernandes SJ, Mr. Gerald D'Silva, Mr. Dattatreya, Mr. Robert Jose, Dr Suresh Poojary, Mr. Prakash, Dr Denis Fernandes, Dr Norbert Lobo, Mr. Ratan Mohanta, Mr. Kishore D' Silva, Mr. Naveen Mascarenhas, Dr Mahalinga Bhat, Dr Ashoka, Ms Ida D'Souza, and Mr Ronald Sequeira, for their help and plentiful support;

Office staff of the P.G. Studies in Social Work, P.G. Studies in English, and the Ph.D. section of Kuvempu University, Shimogga, for their diligent work;

Large number of my friends and students – specially, Mr. Jayaram A.J., Harsha, Pradeep Kankanwady, Melwyn Pinto SJ, Jerald D'Souza SJ, Alwyn D'Souza SJ, and Fr Martin Murmu – for helping me coordinate the data collection process;

Mr. Lokeshwarappa T.H. and the staff at Kavya Computer Centre, Shankaraghatta, for the neatness and expertise DTP in printing the thesis and Mr. Kashinath for binding it with care;

All those whom I have failed to mention here, but who have themselves not failed to support me during this rewarding voyage; and,

All my family members – specially, Mrs. Benedicta D'Souza, my mother, for her gifts of life and love; Mr. Herald D'Souza, my brother, for his financial and moral support; Ms. Anitha M. D'Souza, my wife, for her affection and patience; and Master Ashish J. D'Souza, my son, for making me understand that research too is an enjoyable enterprise, just like his learning.

D'Souza Ashok Antony Jacob