BIBLIOGRAPHY

A Brief Historical Account of the Nagas, Naga Peoples Movement for Human Rights.

Additional Protocol II, article 1, para, 1.

Arun, Irengbam (2008). Responsibility of Media for a better social change. Paper presented at a seminar on ‘Role of media in the present situation in Manipur’ held at State Guest House on 25 December.

BBC Hard Talk with Th. Muivah, General Secretary, Nation Socialist Council of Nagalim, 29th April, 2005.

CONSOCOM’s The Revolutionary Government of Manipur: A Review, The consolidation Committee Office, Imphal, Manipur.

Daniel, Benett (2013). Exploring the impact of an evolving war and terror blogosphere on traditional media coverage of conflict. Media, war and conflict, vol.6(1).

Do’s and Don’ts for the press, Poknapham, 5 October, 1998.

File No.8/6(3)/79 D.I.G., C.I.D., Government of Manipur.

Grenade lobbed at office of TSE fails to explode. The Sangai Express, January 8, 2012.

Insurgency in Northeast India.

Indian Express, 13 May, 1980.

Kangleipak Communist Party (KCP). A pamphlet issued by the National Political Advisory Red Army signed by N. Babu Meitei, in charge Chairman.

Manifesto of People’s Revolutionary Party of Kangleipak.

Manipur State Constitution Act, 1947 (Article 3 of the Chapter 1).

Manipur: Government imposed restrictions on media from publishing news, http://www.newsreporter.in Memorandum submitted to the Honourable Prime Minister of India, Dr. Manmahon Singh by the Naga Members of Parliament and Members of Legislative Assembly from Manipur, for strengthening the ongoing peace negotiation between the Government of India and NSCN (IM), New Delhi, May 27th, 2005.

Memorandum submitted to Press Council of India regarding the attacks on press freedom in Manipur and request for timely action and intervention by All Manipur Working Journalists’ Union (AMWJU) on 25th September 2013.

‘Rebel threat hits sale of newspapers in Manipur’, Times of India, September 8, 2013.

‘Senior journalists on underworld beat shot dead in Mumbai’, The Sangai Express, June 12, 2011.

Sharma, D.S. (2008). Present socio-economic and political situation in Manipur and role to be played by the media. Paper presented at a seminar on ‘Role of media in the present situation in Manipur’, held at State Guest House on 25 December.

Shillong Accord, 1975.

The Sangai Express, 1 April, 2011.

www.kukination.net.

www.globalsecurity.org/military/world/war/Manipur.htm.