ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me great pleasure to express my unfeigned and sincere thanks and gratitude to my supervisors Dr. (Mrs.) Meenakshi Malhotra, Reader, University Business School, Panjab University, Chandigarh and Dr. S.K. Bhattacharyya, Principal, Technical Teachers' Training Institute, Chandigarh for their valuable guidance, sustained encouragement and constructive criticism at every stage of the work, without which it would have never been accomplished.

I am grateful to the Chairman, University Business School, Panjab University, Chandigarh and Principal, Technical Teachers' Training Institute, Chandigarh for providing me necessary facilities for carrying out the work.

I acknowledge with thanks the cooperation and help received from the Principals, Teachers, and Students of the Polytechnics included in the study in collection of the data and other relevant information. Various employers of polytechnic students need special mention here for sparing their valuable time in providing me the desired information.

I acknowledge with thanks the unsolicited cooperation and help provided by the Library and administrative staff of University Business School, Panjab University, Chandigarh and Technical Teachers' Training Institute, Chandigarh. Specially the help and support received from the department colleagues is profusely acknowledged.

The purpose of acknowledgement will be incomplete if I fail to mention the continued inspiration and encouragement offered by my wife Mithlesh and untiring help from my sons Rajat and Lalit in computer-processing of the data and the manuscript.
