Acknowledgement

I would like to express my sincere thanks and deep sense of gratitude to my research guide, Dr. K. B. Rangappa for his invaluable guidance, scholarly advice, continuous encouragement and enthusiasm throughout this investigation. He is acknowledged, in particular, for offering me this interesting research problem, motivating me during difficulties and for providing the necessary inputs to carry out this research work. I have learned from him the way of thinking and the way of proceeding in research with clear objectives. I am grateful for his valuable comments, stimulating discussions, timely advice and carefree attitude. It is always a great pleasure to work under his supervision.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. N. K. Gowda, Professor & Chairman, Department of Studies in Economics, P.G.Centre, Kuvempu University, Davangere for his valuable advice, constant inspiration and for providing good facilities to carry out the research.

My special thanks are due to Dr. B. P. Veerabhadrappa, Associate Professor and Smt. S. Suchitra, Senior Lecturer, Department of Studies in Economics, P.G.Centre, Kuvempu University, Davangere, for their invaluable comments, suggestions and constant encouragement throughout the course of research work.

My sincere thanks and gratitude are due to Dr. T.R. Manjunath, Registrar, Kuvempu University, Prof. H.G. Devaraj, Former Chairman, Department of Studies in Economics, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta.

I am indebted to Sri G.S. Srinivasamurthy, Principal, SSJVP Govt. PU College, Santhebennur, for his encouragement and constant support to pursue this doctoral programme. My hearty thanks due to all the teaching staff of SSJVP Govt. PU College, Santhebennur, for providing all kind of support during this journey of research. My sincere thanks are also due to Sri.Siddeshwarappa R, Smt.Champakala R and Sri.H.V.Srinivas, for their moral support.

I owe my warm thanks to all my research colleagues, past and present, for creating a friendly and inspiring atmosphere over these years. I am especially grateful to Mr.Thippeswamy E, Mr. Sandesh A.L, Mr.Santosh S.V, Dr.Renuka Bia, Dr.Hanumanthappa and Smt. Rajeshwari Pujari.

My hearty thanks due to all the Staff Member of Biomedical Engineering Department, BIET, Davangere for their valuable cooperation and assistance. My sincere thanks are also due to Mr.Maxim Tellis and Mr.Shashidhar M for their timely help and support in thesis preparation and data collection.

I would be failing on my part if I do not acknowledge the love, affection, encouragement and inspiration given by my family members who have been behind me in all stages of my life and are the sole reason for my achievements. My parents Sri. K.G.Halappa and Smt. Hemavathi K.H., my sisters Smt.Veena and Smt.Vani, in-laws Prof.S.M.Holi and Smt.Rudramma Holi, and to all my family members and to my loving son Bhuvan and husband Dr.Mallikarjun S. Holi, all kids in the family for their moral support and encouragement throughout my academic career.
