ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am delighted to place on record my profound respect and sense of gratitude to my Research Supervisor Dr. G. SREEDHAR, Professor, Dept. of Rural Development and Social Work, S.K. University, Anantapur for his academic excellence in guidance and provoking insights in research pursuits. I am immensely benefited from his illuminating ideas, deeper insights on social sciences and rural development domains, and for instilling research bent of mind and zeal to learn and pursue research on development issues. Above all, he has extended all possible support, inspiring encouragement and demonstrated a heap of affection to complete my research work. I am equally thankful to his family members for their reception, affection and hospitality. I owe them forever.

I profusely thank Dr. C. SUDHAKAR, Chairman, Board of Studies and Dr. D. CHENNA REDDY, Head of the department, respectively of the Department of Rural Development and Social work for their valuable guidance and help. I also thank Dr. V. REDDEPPA REDDY, Dr. K. BHASKAR, Dr. K. GOVINDAPPA, Dr. R. SUGUNA KUMARI and Dr. M. MUNI NARAYANAPPA and other staff members of the department for their excellent support and cooperation.

I am also thankful to Sri K. RAJU, the then Principal Secretary, Rural Development, Government of A.P and Smt. G. JAYA LAKSHMI, the then District Collector, Guntur who gave an opportunity to work with DRDA, Guntur. My thanks are also due to Project Director(s) DRDA, their staff at District Headquarters and at the field level for extending their cooperation and support. in my research work. Special thanks are due to Sri N. R. K. Prasad and I. J. S. Prasad who had provided vital data for the research.

I deem it fit to thank the office bearers of Guntur Zillah Samakhya, sample Mandal Mahila Samakhyas and sample Village Organizations who extended excellent cooperation and support in providing the needed information along with their field staff, i.e., Area coordinators, District Project Managers, Asst. Project Managers, Community Coordinators, Master Book Keepers, Managers of Mandal Velugu Training Centres, Mandal Samaikhya Managers and Activists. Similarly I thank the members of sample SHGs for sharing the information and also sparing their time, particularly during late hours, to provide the needed inputs for this research work. The officials of NABARD, Lead Bank and the participating bank branches have provided the required data for which I am grateful to them.

I admire and appreciate and duly acknowledge my former colleagues in Andhra Pragathi Grameen Bank and their family members at Anantapur who have taken pains in providing logistics and extending cooperation and support in completion of my research.

My thanks are also due to Prof. D. Rajasekhar, Institute of Social and Economic Change (ISEC), Bangalore for his critical guidance and suggestions during the study period. I express my sincere thanks to Dr. S. Sudhakar Reddy of Centre for Economic Social Studies (CESS), Hyderabad for his help. I also would like to profusely thank Prof. B. Sambasiva Rao, Department of Economics and Applied Economics, Acharya Nagarjuna University, Guntur for all his encouragement and help.
I earnestly pay my homage to my parents, in-laws, uncles and aunts for their blessings on this occasion. I must appreciate the efforts of my grandchildren Sardhak, Bodh, Mahima, Nihal and Rudraksh in extending their support for early completion of the work. Smt. K. Padmaja, Ph.D., my daughter and Dr. C. Satyanarayana, my son-in-law always came to my rescue in completing the research and extended their unstinted support. My sons and daughters-in-law were anxious for my completion of the research. My heartfelt appreciation to my life partner Smt. K. V. P. Devi for her support, cooperation and encouragement for successful completion of this academic work.

K. SATYANARAYANA