Acknowledgement

Firstly, I would like to pass my gratitude to the omnipresent assistant in my Life, God, who has been a highlighter and a real aid throughout all my life. Many people have contributed to this research. I would like to express my gratitude to all those who gave me the opportunity to complete this Thesis. I am deeply indebted to my research guide Dr.V.S. More, Director, Institute of Management, Panchvati, Nashik, whose help, stimulating suggestions and encouragement helped me at all times of the research. His supervision, advice, and guidance from the very early stage of this research provide me extraordinary experiences throughout the work. His perception has made him as a constant oasis of ideas and passions in research, which extremely inspire and enrich my growth as a teacher and as a researcher. Without his guidance it would have been impossible to do this work. I have done my best to address his concerns; the errors that remain in this work are entirely my own. My special gratitude to Prof. Dr. J.R. Bhor, Prof.Dr.D.M.Gujrathi, Dr.R.R.Berad, Prof.Dr.D.B.Shinde without whom this research was not possible. I would like to thank Dr. B.B.Jadhav, Director, Global Institute of Management, Sangamner for encouraging me for research work. Especially, my gratitude and appreciation, as ever, for the patience and morale support of my father and mother and my wife, Manisha, without whom, much of this would never have happened.

Lastly, I thank my son Kaunteya and daughter Sharvari who always help me in having charming, lively and lovely environment at my home.
