ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is the outcome of many learnings, experiences, guidance and encouragement by great people and without their help this would not have been possible. Some of them, however, deserve special thanks. I owe my deepest gratitude and sincere thanks to my research guide Dr. Nilesh R. Berad, Director, Ashoka Business School as well as Executive Director, Ashoka Education Foundation, for his constant and keen interest, invaluable guidance and encouragement throughout the period of this research work. His minute observations and timely suggestions were very useful in completing this thesis. I feel privileged and blessed for working under his guidance. His critical and methodological approach gave me insight for this research work.

I express deep sense of gratitude to Dr. V.S. More, Director General MGV’s Institute of Business Management and Research, Nashik for constantly encouraging and supporting me at every stage of the work. He had been the source of inspiration and blessing during the toughest time I had, during the research to complete this research work.

I am very grateful to Dr. P. B. Suryawanshi, Director, MGV’s Institute of Business Management and Research, Nashik for the encouragement and support to complete this research work.

I offer sincere thanks to Dr. R. R. Berad sir for his stimulating support and expert guidelines to complete this research work.

I am highly obliged to Hon. Shri. Ashokji Kataria, Chairman, Ashoka Education Foundation, for his blessings and encouragement for the completion of the thesis.

I am also grateful to Dr.J. V. Bhalerao, Dr. Arif Anjum, Dr. Ashutosh More, Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff of MGV’s Institute of Management and Research, Nashik for their help and support.

Also I owe my sincere thanks to Dr. P. S. Muley, Dr. Yogesh Gaikwad, Prof. Nilesh Challare, Prof. Hema Gwalani, Adv. Manisha Bhambre, Mr. Shashikant Shimpi, Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff of Ashoka Business School, and Ashoka Center for Business and Computer Studies, Nashik for their valuable help and continuous encouragement.

I owe special thanks to Mr. Ravishankar and Mr. Krishna from V-GUARD solar Systems, Dr. Omprakash Kulkarni of Bhaskar Solar, Mr. Ghanashyam Yeola of TATA BP Solar, Mr. Bhavsar of Shree Solar for helping me and giving more insight for the thought process.

I am also thankful to all the respondents who participated in the process of data collection. I am highly obliged to the past and present authors whose contribution was of a great help to me during investigation. I also express my sincere thanks to all those who helped me in course of my every walk of life to furnish and complete my research work without whose help this work would not have seen the light of this day.

These acknowledgements would not be complete without expressing my gratitude and thanks to my family for their constant support and encouragement. My father Prof. R. M. Telrandhe and my mother Mrs. Indira R. Telrandhe who always remained the source of energy and motivation, Dr. Mahesh, Dr. Geeta, Rajesh and Mrs. Sheetal always reminded me of my targets when they found me relaxing. Finally I would like to mention a special person in my life; my wife Chetana and my two loving daughters Yugandhara and Yukta. I thank them for all support, love, care and compromises made by them during the period of research. I dedicate this thesis to them.
