The research for Ph.D. demands constant supervision and guidance at each step. I am the most fortunate to have the opportunity of having Hon'ble Dr. S.L. Goel, Professor and Head, deptt. of Public Administration, D.C.C., Panjab University and Member, University Grants Commission, as my esteemed guide and most experienced supervisor. Inspite of his heavy academic schedules, he spared his most precious time whenever I approached him. His vast knowledge, deep insight, well reasoned concepts, meticulous and scholarly guidance enlightened my path like a lighthouse. He injected in me a sense of self-confidence which is the foundation of a sound research. His keen interest, and constant encouragement accelerated my pace towards the attainment of the goal. I owe him a sincerest debt of gratitude which can never be repaid in any form.

I must also express my thanks to Dr.(Mrs.) Aruna Goel, Professor and Head, Deptt. of Sanskrit, D.C.C., Pb. Univ., Chandigarh, who has been a continuous source of inspiration and showered her parental affection in abundance.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. B.S. Ghuman, Chairman, Deptt. of Public Administration, Panjab University, for his sustained support, valuable suggestions and provision of required facilities.

I am highly grateful to Dr. Y.N. Mehra, Former Medical Superintendent and Mrs. C. Earnest, Former Chief Nursing Officer, Nehru Hospital, P.G.I.M.E.R., Chandigarh for permitting me to
I owe my special thanks to Dr. Anil Gupta, Medical Superintendent, Mrs. C. Daniel, officiating Nursing Superintendent, Sh. I.K. Sharma, Superintendent, establishment (hospital and nursing services), Nehru Hospital, P.G.I.M.E.R., Chandigarh, and all others, who directly and indirectly assisted me by providing valuable information required in the completion of this venture.

My sense of deep gratitude to Dr. (Mrs.) Indrajit Walia, Principal, College of Nursing, P.G.I.M.E.R., Chandigarh, cannot be expressed in words. She is the anchor in my professional career. I humbly acknowledge with respect, the expert guidance, invaluable advice and needed assistance offered by her, as ever.

I must also pen down my sincere regards and heart-felt thanks to Dr. Gulzar Singh, Reader, Deptt. of Physics, P.U., Chandigarh, for boosting my morale and motivating me to bring this investigation to a fruitful conclusion.

I am very grateful to Ms. Mona R. Bomgaars, Acting Director, Health Services, United Mission to Nepal, Dr. Sally Ann Bisch, Regional Nursing Advisor, W.H.O., SEARO, and Dr. S.K. Kataria, Ex. Research Officer, NIHF W, New Delhi, for the valuable guidance and needed assistance provided by them.

I am highly thankful to the librarians, P.G.I.M.E.R., Chandigarh; Panjab University; State Library, U.T., Chandigarh; R.A.K. College of Nursing; National Institute of Health and Family Welfare;
I shall be failing in my duty if I do not thank the subjects of my study for their cooperation and willing participation in the investigation.

There is no substitute to the blessings. The blessings showered by my father, Sh. S.N. Nanda and my father-in-law, Sh. B.R. Ghai, removed all hurdles, whatsoever, during my progress in this venture.

Dictionaries have failed to provide words sufficient to express my immense indebtedness to my husband, Dr. Chander Mohan Ghai, my daughters Tamanna and Akanksha for their forbearance, who stood by me patiently during all dawns and dusks of life and spared me to complete this endeavour.
