ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deep debt of gratitude to Dr. C.M. Muniramappa, M.Com., Ph.D., C.C.A (USA), Professor and Chairman, Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Commerce, University of Mysore, Mysore. With his bountiful knowledge and scholarly approach to research problems, he has inspired many like me. I humbly thank him for the keen interest evinced towards this work throughout.

My thanks are also due to the members of the staff in the Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Commerce, for their encouragement and cooperation throughout this work.

I wish to thank the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for having given me the fellowship to carry out this study. Dr. K. Chengaiah Chetty, Dr. G. Somasundaram and Sri (Late) M. Vardarajulu and his family members deserve all the credit for their guidance, encouragement and interest in building up my academic career.

I am thankful to the following for their help and suggestions during the course of the work at various stages:

1. The General Managers, DIC, Anantapur, Chittoor, Cuddapah and Kurnool.
2. The Documentation Officer, Directorate of Industries, Government of Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad.

4. District Planning Officers, Anantapur, Chittoor, Cuddapah and Kurnool.

5. District Lead Bank Officers, Anantapur, Chittoor, Cuddapah and Kurnool.

6. The Librarian, NISER, Hyderabad.

7. The Librarian, University Library, University of Mysore, Mysore.

8. The Librarian, University Library, S.V. University, Tirupati.

10. Sri Madhu (in typing the thesis).

I thank all, who directly or indirectly encouraged and helped me in completion of this work.

(V. MURUGAIAH)
