ACKNOWLEDGEMENT....

Recite, for your Lord is the Most Generous, Who taught writing by the pen. Taught man what not.

Al-Qur’an (Surah Al-alaq)

First of all, I am thankful to almighty Allah for what he has given to me; particularly for the patience of a researcher.

I am also highly indebted to Late Hkm. Abdul Hameed Saheb, whose selfless mission, this University seeks to fulfil. May his soul rest in peace (Ameen!).

It is my pleasure to thank the people who made this thesis possible. I feel honoured to express my sincere regards and deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor and head of the department of Medical Elementology and Toxicology Dr. Sarwat Sultana for introducing me to the scientific world of Toxicology and letting me realize that scientific research is a deeply enjoyable endeavour and not an academic obligation. Due to her profound knowledge, unconditional guidance and affection, constant encouragement, and enthusiasm for research, this thesis was first made possible. Words are insufficient to describe her forthcoming and co-operative nature, coupled with deep knowledge of the subject, something that makes her a unique human being.

My sincere thanks go to Prof. M.Z. Abadin Dean Faculty of science for his constant encouragement, moral support and providing necessary facilities to effectively carry out this work.

My whole hearted thanks to my teachers Prof. (Dr). S Raissuddin, Prof. E. A. Khan and Drs., F. Islam, M.S. Siddiqui, H.A.Khan, Suhel Parvez and Abdur Rub, for their moral support, priceless suggestions, inspiration and guidance throughout the study period.

Prof. Iqbal, Prof. S. K. Jain and Prof. P. S. Srivastava in their capacity as Deans of Faculty of Science are acknowledged for providing necessary facilities for completion of this thesis.

I feel pleasure to express my sincere thanks to Vice Chancellor Dr. G. N. Qazi for infusing a new vision in the functioning of this institution and taking keen interest in ongoing research and developmental programs in the University.
Mr. F.A. Zaidi, Junaid, Irshad and S.D. Sharma are highly acknowledged for their technical assistance and the valuable expertise they shared with me during the study. The same way, I will never forget Babu Khan, Raqi, Rahman, Ehtesham, Hashim, Akhlaq and Idris, the attendants of the department, for ever-ready help and cooperation.

Special thanks for skilful technical assistant of our laboratory, from time to time, M. Faisal, M. Shaban and Nizammuddin who went out of the way to help me whenever requested.

The staff of animal house Prof. Shakir Ali, Dr. Ambresh Tiwari, Dr Zuhaib Fayaz, Messers Tariqat, Ibrahim and Sant Raj deserve a special praise for providing the animals and taking their care. It is really due to their help that my experiments were possible.

I also thank the library staff Mrs. Zia Fatima, and Mr. Shamim for their help and cooperation for issuing books during my Ph.D programme.

I would like to acknowledge the company, cooperation and help of my senior labmates during the tenure of the study Dr. Sonia Sharma, Dr. T.H. Khan, Dr. Laxmi Prasad, Dr. T. Jahangir, Dr. Anu sehrawat and Dr. Sehar Rahman. My lab mates Mir Tahir, Farrah Ali, Dr Wajhul Qamar, Abdul lateef, Rehan Khan, A.Q. Khan, Arjumand Wani, Sheikh Tanveer, Sana, Summaya, Nemat, Oday and Kazim for their invaluable support and selfless help. They have been the driving force behind my efforts.

My days at Hamdard and especially my stay as a research scholar was made memorable by the company of my classmates Hayate Javaid, Wajhul Qamar, Abdul Lateef, Rehan Khan, Andleeb Khan, Kumar Vaibhav, and Jyotishree. My best wishes are always with them for their bright and successful future.

The individuals who were exceedingly generous in extending their help to me are Junaid Jamsheed (For helping me in formatting of thesis), Dr. Akhtar Dard (For his jokes and suggestions), Naseer Sahil (For being determined IAS aspirant), Sir Adil (For all the support in referencing), Col. Zuhaib (For giving dealings) I owe a great debt of gratitude for their selfless cooperation during my research tenure.

I feel pleasure in conveying my gratitude to my friends in Hamdard Adil, Messi, Nadeem, Muqaddus, Nayeem, Faheem, Shabir, Arshid Mir, Aamir, Asif, Imran, Dr Shazad, Dr jalaal,
My seniors in hostel Dr M Zaffar, Dr Majid, Dr Gowher, Dr Tanveer Wani and Dr Shabir have played a significant role in completion of my thesis by their constant encouragement and positive criticism.

All I did and tried to accomplish was always seen and discussed with people who will remain special to me always. People like Dr. Sonia Sharma, Dr Muzamil Andrabi, Dr. T.H. Khan, Dr Moshahid Khan, Dr T Jahangir and Dr. Suhel Parvez. I would never forget their cordial cooperation during many pleasant and not so pleasant moments of my research that I shared with them.

"My family", that is instrumental in all my efforts deserves a special mention. No words can express my indebtedness to my parents especially my mother, who has been a constant source of inspiration, encouragement and joy to me and is the epitome of strength for me, she has shared sleepless nights with me sharing my tensions and bearing my idiosyncrasies and tantrums. I feel lucky to avail this opportunity to thank her for unconditional love, care and overwhelming support, for always believing in me, understanding me and standing besides me as my "best friends" and making to achieve this feat.

Most importantly, I would like to thank and feel short of words to express my sincere thanks to brothers (Shoib, Rayees and Tahir) and my sister (Ishrat) for their care, sacrifice, support, encouragement and affection and for being the pillars of strength behind me.

Special recognition goes to my precious friends Faizanul Haq Iqbal, Dr Shah Faesal, Sumair Reyaz, Saima, Syed Ovais, Umar Majid, Omar Banday, Arshid, Ishtaiq, Omais, Seema, Shafia and Dr. Nighat for standing besides me at all times and providing unflinching and unconditional support and care to me, both in words and in action.

Finally, I would like to thank all the experimental animals who silently sacrificed their lives for my experimental studies and for the larger cause of enriching the field of human knowledge.

(Muneeb U Rehman)
