ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Before the presentation of this study, it is my proud privilege to express my profound sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my esteemed and unparalleled guide Prof. G. M. Malik (Head and Dean Faculty of Education, Kashmir University) for his adroit guidance, academic vision, perpetual inspiration, and constant encouragement and over all supervision during the entire period of the study. He always treated me next to his son ‘Umar’.

I with immense pleasure and sense of feeling of profound gratitude express my manifold thanks to my Co – Supervisor Dr. Mohammad Yousef Ganai and Dr. Mehmood Ahmad Khan of the Department for their thoughtful suggestions, constructive opinions and untiring help during the entire course of investigation, as their energy and good ideas made the project unique.

I extend manifold thanks to Prof. N. A. Nadeem, for his thoughtful suggestions, encouragement and constructive advices during the course of investigation. I owe thanks to Prof. B. A. Nehvi, Prof. A. R. Rather, Dr. Nighat Bassu, Dr. M. I. Mattoo, and Dr. Tasleema Jan (Department of Education, Kashmir University) for their keen interest, encouragement, valuable suggestions and help for academic procedures and insight in this study.

I wish to record my indebtedness to Prof. Mohammad Ashraf Wani (Head Deptt. of History, Kashmir University), Prof. Manzoor Ahmad Khan (Head Deptt. of Arabic, Kashmir University), Prof. Shad Ramzan (Professor, Deptt. of Kashmiri, Kashmir University), Dr. Peerzada Mohammad Amin (Reader Deptt. of Sociology), Dr. Manzoor (Deptt. of Sociology, Kashmir University), Mr. Tariq Ahmad (Lecturer, Deptt. of Arabic, Kashmir University), Dr. Bilquees Shair, (Lecturer, Govt Degree College Badgam), and Dr. Parveen Pandit (Sr. Lecturer, Govt College of Education Srinagar) for their scholarly suggestions and keen interest in the course of study. I am also placing on record my deep appreciation for Abdul Waheed Bhat, Riyaz Ahmad Mir, Dr. Najma Peerzada and Aamina Parveen for their encouragement, appreciation and timely help for the presentation of study. Their patience and sense of proportion never be wavered. Thanks are also due to my friends especially Dr. Muneer, Miss Gulnaz, Mohammad Ashraf, Showket Rashid, Shabeer Ahmad, Nawaz, Mansoor Ahmad, Waseem, Amina Mumtaz, Parveen and Sugra. I also thank to all scholars and students of Kashmir University especially of the Department of Education who encouraged me during the entire period of the study.Thanks are also due to the Head Office of the Department, especially, M Altaf, G. R. Hakeem, Mam Tanveera, G. M. Jan and Gh Rasool and Deans Office including Mam Rafeeqa and Mohammad Abas for their constant encouragement and immense help.

I wish to record my indebtedness to families of Prof. G. M. Malik including Bajee (Mrs. Malik) whose encouragement never be forgotten. Umar—whose sound judgment and advice were invaluable at several key junctures. Asma, whose wit, care and commentary encouraged my writing and rewriting efforts, and Atiya, whose good humour and devotion to accuracy were unparalleled. Appreciation is due to the family of Dr. M. Y. Ganai, whose vision encouraged me to look higher and higher. The families of Mohammad Ashraf and Mohammad Iliyas were no less important who remained cheerful even in the face of seemingly Insurmountable problems. I personally feel great regard to my relatives for providing me a complete chance to complete my thesis. Thanks are also due to Mr. Javeed Rahi (In charge, Gujjar Wing, Cultural Academy, Srinagar) for giving constructive opinions during the study.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not thank librarians of Iqbal Library, Kashmir University, Departmental Librarians especially Mam Ifat, Mam Kulsoom and Mam Nuzhat. Librarians of NCERT (New Delhi), NEAPA, JNU, Delhi University, Suproo House, J. N. Nehru Librarians Teen Murti, New Delhi, Zakir Hussain Library Jamia Millia Islamia, and the librarians of Gujjar Dash Charitable Trust (Jammu) for their constant help, encouragement and opinions during consultation. I do express my indebtedness to my students especially Farooq Ahmad, Muzafar Ahamad Sofi and Nighat Tak for their help and encouragement.

I am also thankful to all ZEO’s, Heads of the Institutions, Teachers, Students, Parents, Gujjar and Non Gujjars of District Kupwara whose cooperation smoothed the process of data collection.

I do express my sense of gratitude and love for my sister ‘Gulshan’ and brothers, Sajad Hussian and Noor Mohammad’ and M.Rafiq whose playful activities boosted me during the entire period of study; Babhi, uncles and other kiths who served as a great source of inspiration for me during the study are also no less important to mention as they cared me and brought me up to the level of judgment.

I take pride in myself for being the son of ideal, great parents especially my father ‘Gulam Mohammad’ and mother ‘Hajira’ whose everlasting desire, blessings and help through out my academic exploration brought me here up to without it would not have been possible for the present study to see the light of the day.
I am also grateful to the family of Nazir Ahmad Wani (Sogam) and other Gujjar and Bakarwal families of District Kupwara who provided me accommodation during the study.

At last but not the least, I want to express special appreciation to Mohammad Akram, his son Waseem, Mohammad Yousuf, his brother Muzafar, Yaqoob Sarwar, Mohammad Ashraf, and Irshad Hussain for showing their keen interest in doing all computer work in the study. They all inspired me with their efficiency and excellent work.

Mohd Sayid Bhat
(Investigator)