1. The bus stands present the scene of a fair due to increasing population T/F
2. It is difficult to fulfill even the basic needs of the members of a big family. T/F
3. It is possible to make all the things available to the children in a big family. T/F
4. Density of population is on the increase due to increasing rate in population. T/F
5. Due to rising population many families have to live in a single room. T/F
6. Lower status of woman in a society is responsible for increase in population. T/F
7. Parents' expectations from a boy differ from that of a girl is one of the reasons of increasing population. T/F
8. Rising population is making the availability of eatables difficult. T/F
9. Despite increase in agricultural production rising population does not let our food problem solved. T/F
10. Food grains are to be imported due to increase in agricultural production. T/F
11. Increasing population makes the environment congenial. T/F
12. With the increase in population our natural resources also increase. T/F
13. Rising population does not affect the basic needs of food, clothing and shelter. T/F
14. Deforestation does not upset the ecological balance. T/F
15. Quantity of oxygen decreases due to rise in population. T/F
16. Rise in population results in the fall of prices. T/F
17. It is not possible to cover up power shortage due to rise in population. T/F
18. Milk yield has decreased due to the decrease in grazing grounds for animal. T/F
19. Per capita availability of milk has decreased despite the increase in milk production. T/F
20. Status of woman has become better in a small family. T/F
21. Although balanced diet is available yet due to the increase in population the health of people is deteriorating. T/F
22. Unemployment has increased despite increased number of industries. T/F
23. The percentage of carbon-dioxide is added due to increase in population. T/F
24. The increase in population may be controlled by late marriage of girls. T/F
25. Spread of education amongst girls will check up the population growth. T/F
26. There is no need to educate the slum-dwellers regarding the problems of population growth. T/F
27. The standard of social value has improved due to the explosion of population growth. T/F
28. Desire to have a male issue will decrease if the custom of dowry is eliminated. T/F
29. The social status of a family depends on the number of its member. T/F
30. In a small family, the personality of the child can not develop properly. T/F
TEST - I

Objective type for Teachers/Parents

Total number of members in the family: __________

Given below are certain statements on different aspects of Population Education. They are either true or false. Please read each statement and indicate whether you think it to be true or false by encircling T or F:-

1. Population Education is a motivational force which aims at creating awareness about the magnitude of the problem of growing population.

2. Population Education aims at developing responsible attitude among the students towards the family size.

3. The objective of Population Education is to improve the quality of life.

4. It aims at developing a scientific outlook towards birth.

5. Population Education aims at developing a responsible parenthood among the students.

6. Population Education is sex education.

7. Population Education is nothing but making the students aware of serious consequences arising out of population growth.

8. Population Education is not Family Planning Education.

9. Population Education is a separate subject to be taught in school.

10. A teacher in population education attaches more importance to boy education as compared to girl education.

12. Education can help in controlling population.

13. Water, air and soil pollution is a problem of only developed countries.
14. Rapid increase in population is adversely affecting educational facilities along with other facilities.

15. Rapid increase in population is affecting expansion as well as Standard of Education.

16. Population Education is purely the study of family life education.

17. Population Education is the other name of contraceptive education.

18. Five persons are Indian out of every thirteen persons in the world.

19. The basic aim of education is to control population.

20. Inspite of increase in availability of medical services during the last three decades, death rate could not be brought to the desired target.

21. India, although second in population, is at number seven in the area in the world.

22. The average density of population in India is lower than that of China.

23. If there are two children per family the population would automatically double at the end of each generation.

24. Urbanization is a phenomenon owing exclusive origin to population explosion in villages.

25. Population Education emphasizes that planning at national and family levels must go together.

26. Population Education is really more concerned with the well being of the next generation.

27. Population Education aims at a new world order based on just and equitable consumption.

28. Population explosion confirms air dismal failure in developmental efforts.

29. The ultimate goal of population education is to bring about reduction in population growth.

30. The family with more children commands more respect in the society.