ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The thought of doing doctoral study in journalism has been in my mind ever since I completed Masters in Mass Communication in 2000. Over time that thought turned into a dream. My teacher, Prof. G.P. Pandey’s encouragement turned that dream into an obsession, and his guidance helped me to turn this dream into reality. I was extremely fortunate to get him beside me as supervisor.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. G.P. Pandey for his able guidance without which the study would not have been possible.

Prof. Pandey with his vast experience and deep insight into mass media research virtually thrashed out all incongruence’s and guided the study to the right track. His enlightened criticism and openness made me confident to delve deep into the topic in which no academic work has been undertaken in Assam. My best regards to Prof. Pandey sir.

I must express my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. Tapodhir Bhattacharjee, Vice Chancellor, Assam University, who was kind enough to facilitate my enrollment to doctoral course.

My sincere thanks also go to Dr. V.P. Singh, Professor, Allahabad University, who was kind enough to facilitate the work during my service tenure at ETV news, Kolkata.

I am specially thankful to Dr. Gopalji Mishra, Professor & Dean, Jadunath Sarkar School of Social Sciences of Assam University and Dr. G. Ram, Professor, Department of Sociology, Assam University for their valuable suggestions in organizing and revising the work.

Reports of experts on my research proposal were confidence boosters for me while some of their observation helped me immensely.

As the present work is an empirical one and mainly based on field work of the study areas, I owe my special thanks to the entire journalist fraternity of Assam. The study would not have been possible without the cooperation and support of journalists serving in the 27 administrative districts of Assam. I express my special gratitude to all of them.
My sincere thanks are also due to all my colleagues and friends especially Dr Kingshuk Adhikari, Dr Paromita Das, Ayiriddhi Bhattacharjee, Saday Chandra Das, Monaj Kumar Singh, Shatadal Acharjee, Mreetyunjaya Daas and Atish Parashar for the moral support they extended during the course of the present work. I am especially thankful to my colleagues Prof. K.V. Nagaraj, Dr Silajit Guha, Mr Charvak, Dr. Partha Sarkar, Mr. Syed Mustafa Alfarid Hussain, Ms. Ayesha T. Rashid, Dr Raghavendra Mishra for their valuable suggestions in organizing and revising the work.

I do not know if it is possible to dedicate a thesis to anyone. But if it is, then I would like to dedicate this study to my princess-daughter Late Sazna Paul, who left for heavenly abode on the third day of her birth in 2009. I also would like to dedicate the thesis to my Eldest sister, Late Shewli Paul, and my parents Mrs. Sulekha Paul and Mr. N.C. Paul. My elder brother Mr Sekhar Paul, elder sister Mrs. Sunanda Das, brothers-in-law Dr Pradip Kumar Das and Mr. Amitabha Paul, my Father-in-law Mr. Raj Kumar Paul also deserve thanks for their constant moral support. Last but not the least, a very special thank to my wife, Mrs. Manashi Paul, for her active and constant support and to my only daughter Miss Sanjana Paul, for bearing with me during the course of work, without whose cooperation the work could not have come out.
